AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to findings of the state board of parole necessary for discretionary release of incarcerated persons on parole

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of 2 section 259-i of the executive law, as amended by chapter 130 of the 3 laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

4 (A) Discretionary release on parole shall [~~not~~] be granted [~~merely as~~ 5 ~~a reward for good conduct or efficient performance of duties while~~ 6 ~~confined but after considering if there is a reasonable probability~~ 7 ~~that, if such inmate is released, he will live and remain at liberty~~ 8 ~~without violating the law, and that his release is not incompatible with~~ 9 ~~the welfare of society and will not so deprecate the seriousness of his~~ 10 ~~crime as to undermine respect for law]~~ to any incarcerated person 11 appearing before the board who is eligible for release on parole, unless 12 the parole case record demonstrates there is a current and unreasonable 13 risk the person will violate the law if released and such risk cannot be 14 mitigated by parole supervision. In making the parole release decision, 15 the procedures adopted pursuant to subdivision four of section two 16 hundred fifty-nine-c of this article shall require that the following be 17 considered: (i) the institutional record including program goals and 18 accomplishments, academic achievements, vocational education, training 19 or work assignments, therapy and interactions with staff and [~~inmates~~]

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

19 sentence probation report as well as consideration of any mitigating and 20 aggravating factors, and activities following arrest prior to confine-21 ment; [~~and~~] (viii) prior criminal record, including the nature and 22 pattern of offenses, adjustment to any previous probation or parole 23 supervision and institutional confinement; and (ix) all evidence of 24 rehabilitation and reform. The board shall provide toll free telephone 25 access for crime victims. In the case of an oral statement made in 26 accordance with subdivision one of section 440.50 of the criminal proce-27 dure law, the parole board member shall present a written report of the 28 statement to the parole board. A crime victim's representative shall 29 mean the crime victim's closest surviving relative, the committee or 30 guardian of such person, or the legal representative of any such person.
31 Such statement submitted by the victim or victim's representative may 32 include information concerning threatening or intimidating conduct 33 toward the victim, the victim's representative, or the victim's family, 34 made by the person sentenced and occurring after the sentencing. Such 35 information may include, but need not be limited to, the threatening or 36 intimidating conduct of any other person who or which is directed by the 37 person sentenced. Any statement by a victim or the victim's represen-38 tative made to the board shall be maintained by the department in the 39 file provided to the board when interviewing the [~~inmate~~] incarcerated
40 person in consideration of release. A victim or victim's representative 41 who has submitted a written request to the department for the transcript
42 of such interview shall be provided such transcript as soon as it 43 becomes available.

44 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
