AN ACT to establish the "statewide tenant protection act of 2019"; and to amend the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, in relation to expanding rent and eviction protections statewide

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "statewide tenant protection act of 2019."

3 § 2. Section 2 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974,
4 constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-
5 four, is amended to read as follows:

7 that a serious public emergency continues to exist in the housing of a
8 considerable number of persons in the state of New York which emergency

10 math of hostilities, that such emergency necessitated the intervention 11 of federal, state and local government in order to prevent speculative, 12 unwarranted and abnormal increases in rents; that there continues to 13 exist in many areas of the state an acute shortage of housing accommo-

1 agency housing rent control act or the New York City rent stabilization 2 law of nineteen hundred sixty-nine, including persons residing in large 3 parts of the state that have been arbitrarily excluded from coverage 4 under this act are being charged excessive and unwarranted rents and 5 rent increases and are subject to unjust and arbitrary evictions; that 6 preventive action by the legislature continues to be imperative in order 7 to prevent exaction of unjust, unreasonable and oppressive rents and 8 rental agreements and to forestall profiteering, speculation and other 9 disruptive practices tending to produce threats to the public health,
10 safety and general welfare; that in order to prevent uncertainty, hard-11 ship and dislocation, the provisions of this act are necessary and 12 designed to protect the public health, safety and general welfare; that 13 the existing law regulating residential rents and evictions would better 14 promote equity and serve the public interest if certain amendments were 15 made thereto, including the removal of arbitrary geographic restrictions 16 on the applicability of this act; that the transition from regulation to 17 a normal market of free bargaining between landlord and tenant, while 18 the ultimate objective of state policy, must take place with due regard 19 for such emergency; and that the policy herein expressed shall be 20 subject to determination of the existence of a public emergency requir-
21 ing the regulation of residential rents and evictions within any city, 22 town or village by the local legislative body of such city, town or 23 village.

24 The legislature therefore declares that the provisions of this act are 25 necessary to protect the public health, safety and general welfare. The 26 necessity in the public interest for the provisions hereinafter enacted 27 is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination.

28 § 3. Section 14 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974,
29 constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-
30 four, is amended to read as follows:

31 § 14. Application of act. The provisions of this act shall [~~only~~] be 32 applicable:

33 a. in the city of New York; and

34 b. in [~~the counties of Nassau, Westchester and Rockland~~] all counties
35 within the state of New York outside the city of New York and shall 36 become and remain effective only in a city, town or village located 37 therein as provided in section three of this act.

38 § 4. Separability clause. If any provision of this act or the applica-
39 tion there shall, for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent 40 jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, such judgement shall not 41 affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this act, but shall be 42 confined in its operation to the provision thereof directly involved in 43 the controversy in which the judgement shall have been rendered;
44 provided, however, that in the event that the entire system of rent
45 control or stabilization shall be finally adjudged invalid or unconsti-46 tutional by a court of competent jurisdiction because of the operation 47 of any provision of this act, such provision shall be null, void and 48 without effect, and all other provisions of this act which can be given 49 effect without such invalid provision, as well as provisions of any 50 other law, relating to the control of or stabilization of rent, as in 51 effect prior to the enactment of this act as otherwise amended by this 52 act, shall continue in full force and effect for the period of effec-
53 tiveness set forth in section 17 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974,
54 constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-
55 four, as amended.

1 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that the amend-2 ments to sections 2 and 14 of the emergency tenant protection act of 3 nineteen seventy-four made by sections two and three of this act shall 4 expire on the same date as such act expires and shall not affect the 5 expiration of such act as provided in section 17 of chapter 576 of the 6 laws of 1974, as amended.
