AN ACT to amend the tax law and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring the commissioner of taxation and finance to cooperate with investigations by certain committees of the United States Congress under certain circumstances

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "tax 2 returns released under specific terms act".

3 § 2. Section 697 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection 4 (f-1) to read as follows:

5 (f-1) Cooperation with investigations by certain committees of the 6 United States Congress.--(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of 7 subsection (e) of this section, upon written request from the chair-8 person of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of 9 Representatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the 10 United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxa-11 tion of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such 12 committee with any reports or returns filed under this article specified 13 in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any report 14 or return, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure 15 of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or

1 federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal
2 privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residen-
3 tial address information.

4 (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 5 requesting committee certifies in writing that such reports or returns
6 have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose,
7 the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States
8 secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or return informa-
9 tion, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such reports or returns 10 will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United 11 States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a 12 manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 13 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

14 § 3. Section 202 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision
15 6 to read as follows:

16 6. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this 17 section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on 18 ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-
19 person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the 20 chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States
21 Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any reports
22 filed under this article specified in such request; provided however 23 that, prior to furnishing any report, the commissioner shall redact any 24 information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commission-
25 er, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwar-
26 ranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers,
27 account numbers and residential address information.

28 (b) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 29 requesting committee certifies in writing that such reports have been 30 requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the 31 requesting committee has made a written request to the United States
32 secretary of the treasury for related federal reports or report informa-33 tion, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such reports will be 34 inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States
35 House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner
36 consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C.
37 Section 6103(f).

38 § 4. Section 211 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision
39 16 to read as follows:

40 16. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision eight of this 41 section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on
42 ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-
43 person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the 44 chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States
45 Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any reports
46 filed under this article specified in such request; provided however 47 that, prior to furnishing any report, the commissioner shall redact any
48 information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commission-
49 er, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwar-
50 ranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers,
51 account numbers and residential address information.

52 (b) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 53 requesting committee certifies in writing that such reports have been 54 requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the
55 requesting committee has made a written request to the United States
56 secretary of the treasury for related federal reports or report information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such reports will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

§ 5. Section 314 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision (g) to read as follows:

(g) Cooperation with investigations by certain committees of the United States Congress.--(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.

(2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or return information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

§ 6. Section 437 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 5 to read as follows:

5. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns or reports filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return or report, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.

(b) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns or reports have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or reports or return or report information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns or reports will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

§ 7. Section 491 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 1-a to read as follows:

1 1-a. Cooperation with investigations by certain committees of the 2 United States Congress. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivi-3 sion one of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of 4 the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Represen-
5 tatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United 6 States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of 7 the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such commit-8 tee with any returns or reports filed under this article specified in 9 such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return or 10 report, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of 11 which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or 12 federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal
13 privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residen-
14 tial address information.

15 (b) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 16 requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns or reports
17 have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose,
18 the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States 19 secretary of the treasury for related federal reports or returns or 20 report or return information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), 21 and such returns or reports will be inspected and/or submitted to anothe-
22 er committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the 23 United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and 24 procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

25 § 8. Section 499 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision
26 (a-1) to read as follows:

27 (a-1) Cooperation with investigations by certain committees of the 28 United States Congress. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivi-29 sion (a) of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of 30 the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Represen-
31 tatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United 32 States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of 33 the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such commit-34 tee with any returns or reports filed under this article specified in 35 such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return or 36 report, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of 37 which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or 38 federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal
39 privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residen-
40 tial address information.

41 (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 42 requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns or reports
43 have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose,
44 the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States
45 secretary of the treasury for related federal reports or returns or 46 report or return information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f),
47 and such returns or reports will be inspected and/or submitted to anothe-
48 er committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the
49 United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and
50 procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

51 § 9. Section 514 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision
52 6 to read as follows:

53 6. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this
54 section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on
55 ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-
56 person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the

1 chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States
2 Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns
3 or reports filed under this article specified in such request; provided
4 however that, prior to furnishing any return or report, the commissioner 5 shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of 6 the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute 7 an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security
8 numbers, account numbers and residential address information.

9 (b) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 10 requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns or reports
11 have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose,
12 the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States
13 secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or reports or 14 return or report information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), 15 and such returns or reports will be inspected and/or submitted to another
16 committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the 17 United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and 18 procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

19 § 10. Section 994 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection
20 (b-1) to read as follows:

21 (b-1) Cooperation with investigations by certain committees of the 22 United States Congress. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 23 (a) of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the 24 committee on ways and means of the United States House of Represen-
25 tatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United 26 States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of 27 the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such commit-28 tee with any reports or returns filed under this article specified in 29 such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any report or 30 return, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of 31 which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or 32 federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal
33 privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residen-
34 tial address information.

35 (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 36 requesting committee certifies in writing that such reports or returns
37 have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose,
38 the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States
39 secretary of the treasury for related federal reports or returns or 40 report or return information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), 41 and such reports or returns will be inspected and/or submitted to another
42 committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the 43 United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and 44 procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

45 § 11. Section 1146 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-
46 sion (h) to read as follows:

47 (h) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this 48 section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on
49 ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-
50 person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the 51 chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States
52 Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns
53 or reports filed under this article specified in such request; provided
54 however that, prior to furnishing any return or report, the commissioner 55 shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of 56 the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute

1 an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security
2 numbers, account numbers and residential address information.

3 (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 4 requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns or reports
5 have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose,
6 the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States
7 secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or reports or 8 return or report information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f),
9 and such returns or reports will be inspected and/or submitted to another
10 committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the 11 United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and 12 procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

13 § 12. Section 1287 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-
14 sion (g) to read as follows:

15 (g) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this 16 section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on
17 ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-
18 person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the
19 chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States
20 Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns
21 filed under this article specified in such request; provided however 22 that, prior to furnishing any return, the commissioner shall redact any 23 information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commission-
24 er, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwar-
25 ranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers,
26 account numbers and residential address information.

27 (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 28 requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns have been 29 requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the
30 requesting committee has made a written request to the United States
31 secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or reports or 32 return or report information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), 33 and such returns will be inspected and/or submitted to another commit-
34 tee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United 35 States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and proce-
36 dures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

37 § 13. Section 1296 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-
38 sion (f) to read as follows:

39 (f) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this 40 section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on
41 ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-
42 person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the 43 chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States
44 Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns
45 or reports filed under this article specified in such request; provided
46 however that, prior to furnishing any return or report, the commissioner 47 shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of 48 the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute
49 an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security
50 numbers, account numbers and residential address information.

51 (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 52 requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns or reports
53 have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose,
54 the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States
55 secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or reports or 56 return or report information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f),

1 and such returns or reports will be inspected and/or submitted to another
2 committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the
3 United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and
4 procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

5 § 14. Section 1299-f of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-6 sion (d) to read as follows:

7 (d) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this 8 section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on
9 ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-
10 person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the 11 chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States
12 Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns
13 filed under this article specified in such request; provided however 14 that, prior to furnishing any return, the commissioner shall redact any 15 information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commission-
16 er, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwar-
17 ranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers,
18 account numbers and residential address information.

19 (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 20 requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns have been 21 requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the
22 requesting committee has made a written request to the United States
23 secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or reports or 24 return or report information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and 25 such returns will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to 26 the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States
27 Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures 28 established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

29 § 15. Section 1418 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-30 sion (i) to read as follows:

31 (i) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this 32 section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on
33 ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-
34 person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the
35 chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States
36 Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns
37 filed under this article specified in such request; provided however 38 that, prior to furnishing any return, the commissioner shall redact any
39 information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commission-
40 er, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwar-
41 ranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers,
42 account numbers and residential address information.

43 (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 44 requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns have been 45 requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the
46 requesting committee has made a written request to the United States
47 secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or return informa-48 tion, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns will be
49 inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States
50 House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner
51 consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C.
52 Section 6103(f).

53 § 16. Section 1518 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-
54 sion (h) to read as follows:

55 (h) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this 56 section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on

1 ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-
2 person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the
3 chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States
4 Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns
5 filed under this article specified in such request; provided however 6 that, prior to furnishing any return, the commissioner shall redact any
7 information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commission-
8 er, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwar-
9 ranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers,
10 account numbers and residential address information.

11 (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 12 requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns have been 13 requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the
14 requesting committee has made a written request to the United States
15 secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or return informa-
16 tion, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns will be
17 inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States
18 House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner
19 consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C.
20 Section 6103(f).

21 § 17. Section 1555 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-
22 sion (f) to read as follows:

23 (f) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this
24 section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on
25 ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-
26 person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the 27 chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States
28 Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns
29 filed under this article specified in such request; provided however 30 that, prior to furnishing any return, the commissioner shall redact any
31 information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commission-
32 er, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwar-
33 ranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers,
34 account numbers and residential address information.

35 (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 36 requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns have been 37 requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the 38 requesting committee has made a written request to the United States
39 secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or return informa-
40 tion, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns will be
41 inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States
42 House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner
43 consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C.
44 Section 6103(f).

45 § 18. Section 11-1797 of the administrative code of the city of New 46 York is amended by adding a new subdivision (m) to read as follows:

47 (m) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (e) of this 48 section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on
49 ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-
50 person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the 51 chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States 52 Congress, the commissioner of taxation and finance shall furnish such 53 committee with any returns filed under this article specified in such 54 request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return, the 55 commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in 56 the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or

1 would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as 2 social security numbers, account numbers and residential address infor-3 mation.

4 (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 5 requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns have been 6 requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the
7 requesting committee has made a written request to the United States
8 secretary of the treasury for related federal reports or returns or 9 report or return information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f),
10 and such returns will be inspected and/or submitted to another commit-
11 tee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United
12 States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and proce-
13 dures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

14 § 19. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that:

15 (a) the amendments to section 491 of the tax law made by section seven 16 of this act shall not affect the repeal of such section and shall be 17 deemed to be repealed therewith; and 18 (b) the amendments to section 499 of the tax law made by section eight 19 of this act shall take effect on the same date and in the same manner as 20 section 1 of part XX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019 takes effect.
