STATE OF NEW YORK

5072--A

Cal. No. 520

3

7

2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

April 8, 2019

Introduced by Sens. HOYLMAN, ADDABBO, BAILEY, BENJAMIN, BIAGGI, BRESLIN, BROOKS, CARLUCCI, GAUGHRAN, GIANARIS, GOUNARDES, HARCKHAM, JACKSON, KAMINSKY, KAPLAN, KENNEDY, KRUEGER, LIU, MAY, MAYER, MONTGOMERY, MYRIE, PARKER, PERSAUD, RAMOS, RIVERA, SALAZAR, SANDERS, SAVINO, SEPULVEDA, SERRANO, STEWART-COUSINS, THOMAS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Budget and Revenue -- reported favorably from said committee, ordered to first and second report, amended on second report, ordered to a third reading, and to be reprinted as amended, retaining its place in the order of third reading

AN ACT to amend the tax law and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring the commissioner of taxation and finance to cooperate with investigations by certain committees of the United States Congress under certain circumstances

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "tax 2 returns released under specific terms act".

§ 2. Section 697 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (f-1) to read as follows:

(f-1) Cooperation with investigations by certain committees of the United States Congress.--(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (e) of this section, upon written request from the chair-

- 8 person of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of 9 Representatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the
- 10 United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxa-
- tion of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any reports or returns filed under this article specified
- 13 in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any report
- 14 or return, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure
- 15 of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD10448-05-9

1 2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12 13

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23 24

25 26

27

28 29

30 31

33

34

35

36 37

40 41

42

43

44

45

46

47

48

49

50 51 federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.

- (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such reports or returns have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or return information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such reports or returns will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).
- § 3. Section 202 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 14 15 6 to read as follows:
 - 6. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any reports filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any report, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.
- (b) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such reports have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States 32 secretary of the treasury for related federal reports or report information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such reports will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).
- 38 § 4. Section 211 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 39 16 to read as follows:
 - 16. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision eight of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any reports filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any report, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.
- (b) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the 52 53 requesting committee certifies in writing that such reports have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the 54 requesting committee has made a written request to the United States 55 56 secretary of the treasury for related federal reports or report informa-

6

7

21

22

23 24

25 26

27

28 29

30

45

46

47

48

49

50

52

tion, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such reports will be 2 inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States 3 House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner 4 consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. 5 Section 6103(f).

- § 5. Section 314 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision (g) to read as follows:
- 8 (g) Cooperation with investigations by certain committees of the 9 United States Congress. -- (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivi-10 sion (a) of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Represen-11 tatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United 12 States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of 13 14 the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns filed under this article specified in such request; 15 16 provided however that, prior to furnishing any return, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of 17 18 the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute 19 an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security 20 numbers, account numbers and residential address information.
 - (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or return information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).
- 31 § 6. Section 437 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 32 5 to read as follows:
- 33 5. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this 34 section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on 35 ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the 36 chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States 37 Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns 38 or reports filed under this article specified in such request; provided 39 40 however that, prior to furnishing any return or report, the commissioner 41 shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of 42 the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute 43 an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security 44 numbers, account numbers and residential address information.
- (b) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns or reports have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or reports or return or report information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and 51 such returns or reports will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the 53 United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and 54 procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).
- 55 § 7. Section 491 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 56 1-a to read as follows:

1-a. Cooperation with investigations by certain committees of the United States Congress. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivi-sion one of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Represen-tatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such commit-tee with any returns or reports filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return or report, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residen-tial address information.

(b) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns or reports have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal reports or returns or report or return information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns or reports will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

§ 8. Section 499 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision (a-1) to read as follows:

(a-1) Cooperation with investigations by certain committees of the United States Congress. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns or reports filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return or report, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.

(2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns or reports have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal reports or returns or report or return information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns or reports will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

- § 9. Section 514 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 6 to read as follows:
- 53 6. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this
 54 section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on
 55 ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-
 56 person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the

chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns or reports filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return or report, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.

(b) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns or reports have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or reports or return or report information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns or reports will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

§ 10. Section 994 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (b-1) to read as follows:

(b-1) Cooperation with investigations by certain committees of the United States Congress. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any reports or returns filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any report or return, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.

(2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such reports or returns have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal reports or returns or report or return information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such reports or returns will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

§ 11. Section 1146 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision (h) to read as follows:

(h) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns or reports filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return or report, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.

- (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns or reports have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or reports or return or report information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns or reports will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).
- § 12. Section 1287 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision (g) to read as follows:
- (g) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.
- (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or reports or return or report information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).
- \S 13. Section 1296 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision (f) to read as follows:
- (f) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns or reports filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return or report, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.
- (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns or reports have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or reports or return or report information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns or reports will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).

- § 14. Section 1299-f of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision (d) to read as follows:
- (d) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.
 - (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or reports or return or report information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).
- § 15. Section 1418 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-30 sion (i) to read as follows:
 - (i) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.
 - (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or return information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).
- § 16. Section 1518 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-54 sion (h) to read as follows:
- 55 (h) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this 56 section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commission-er, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwar-ranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.

- (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or return information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).
- § 17. Section 1555 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision (f) to read as follows:
- (f) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chairperson of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner shall furnish such committee with any returns filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information.
- (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal returns or return information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns will be inspected and/or submitted to another committee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).
- § 18. Section 11-1797 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new subdivision (m) to read as follows:
- (m) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (e) of this section, upon written request from the chairperson of the committee on ways and means of the United States House of Representatives, the chair-person of the committee on finance of the United States Senate, or the chairperson of the joint committee on taxation of the United States Congress, the commissioner of taxation and finance shall furnish such committee with any returns filed under this article specified in such request; provided however that, prior to furnishing any return, the commissioner shall redact any information the disclosure of which, in the judgment of the commissioner, would violate state or federal law or

4

7

8

9

10

12

13

1 would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, such as social security numbers, account numbers and residential address information. 3

- (2) Such permission shall be granted only if the chairperson of the requesting committee certifies in writing that such returns have been requested for a specified and legitimate legislative purpose, the requesting committee has made a written request to the United States secretary of the treasury for related federal reports or returns or report or return information, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f), and such returns will be inspected and/or submitted to another commit-11 tee, to the United States House of Representatives, or to the United States Senate in a manner consistent with the requirements and procedures established in 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(f).
- 14 § 19. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that: 15 (a) the amendments to section 491 of the tax law made by section seven 16 of this act shall not affect the repeal of such section and shall be 17 deemed to be repealed therewith; and
- (b) the amendments to section 499 of the tax law made by section eight 18 of this act shall take effect on the same date and in the same manner as 19 20 section 1 of part XX of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019 takes effect.