- § 396-aaa. Cash payment non-discrimination. 1. Any retail mercantile 4 establishment as defined in article twelve-B of this chapter, in which food is prepared, sold, or served subject to title eight of article thirteen of the public health law, or other establishment offering goods or services for sale shall accept United States currency (cash) as legal tender when offered as payment. Such establishment shall not discriminate against a cash buyer by requiring the use of a credit or debit card or electronic payment device or process in order to purchase food, goods, or services. This section shall not apply to telephone, mail order, electronic, online, or other transactions in which the buyer is not present in the establishment's physical place of business.
- 13 14 2. The superintendent of the department of financial services may make 15 regulations to implement this section, including authorization of exemptions or exclusions from this section. Exemptions or exclusions 16 under this section may be provided based on criteria including, but not 17 limited to, the nature of the establishment; the nature of the food, 18 goods, or services; the denomination of currency used; or the amount of 19 20 the transaction.
- 21 3. A violation of this section shall be punishable by a fine not to 22 exceed five hundred dollars.
- § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 23 24 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the superintendent of 25 the department of financial services may make regulations and take other actions reasonably necessary to implement this act on that date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
