AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to judgments

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 5011 of the civil practice law and rules, as 2 amended by section 52 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws
3 of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

4 § 5011. Definition and content of judgment. A judgment is the determi-
5 nation of the rights of the parties in an action or special proceeding
6 and may be either interlocutory or final. A judgment shall refer to, and 7 state the result of, the verdict or decision, or recite the default upon 8 which it is based. A judgment may direct that property be paid into 9 court when the party would not have the benefit or use or control of 10 such property or where special circumstances make it desirable that 11 payment or delivery to the party entitled to it should be withheld.

12 Estimations, measures, or calculations of past, present, or future 13 damages for lost earnings or impaired earning capacity resulting from 14 personal injury or wrongful death shall not be reduced based on creed, 15 color, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity or 16 expression, military status, sex, familial status, marital status, or 17 status as a victim of domestic violence. In any case where damages are 18 awarded to an inmate serving a sentence of imprisonment with the state 19 department of corrections and community supervision or to a prisoner 20 confined at a local correctional facility, the court shall give prompt 21 written notice to the office of victim services, and at the same time
22 shall direct that no payment be made to such inmate or prisoner for a 23 period of thirty days following the date of entry of the order contain-24 ing such direction.

25 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
