IN SENATE

April 26, 2019

Introduced by Sen. KAMINSKY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the environmental conservation law, in relation to prohibiting the use of chlorpyrifos; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 33-1301 of the environmental conservation law is amended by adding a new subdivision 12 to read as follows:

12. Effective January first, two thousand twenty, for any person to use chlorpyrifos by aerial application.

§ 2. Section 33-1301 of the environmental conservation law is amended by adding a new subdivision 12 to read as follows:

12. Effective January first, two thousand twenty-one, for any person to apply chlorpyrifos other than to apple tree trunks.

§ 3. Section 33-1301 of the environmental conservation law is amended by adding a new subdivision 12 to read as follows:

12. For any person to use chlorpyrifos.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that section one of this act shall expire and be deemed repealed January 1, 2021 when upon such date the provisions of section two of this act shall take effect; provided further, however, that section two of this act shall expire and be deemed repealed December 1, 2021 when upon such date the provisions of section three of this act shall take effect.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
