Introduced by Sen. MAY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Local Government

AN ACT to amend the county law, in relation to communications service surcharges applied to Madison county; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The county law is amended by adding a new section 336 to read as follows:

§ 336. County of Madison enhanced 911 emergency telephone system. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary, the county of Madison acting through its local county legislative body, is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt, amend or repeal local laws to impose a surcharge, in addition to the surcharge established and imposed under section three hundred three of this chapter, in an amount not to exceed sixty-five cents per access line and wireless communications service line per month on the customers of every service supplier within such municipality to pay for the costs associated with obtaining, operating and maintaining the telecommunication equipment and telephone services needed to provide an enhanced 911 (E911) emergency telephone system to serve such county.

2. Any such local law shall state the amount of the surcharge and the date on which the service supplier shall begin to add such surcharge to the billings of its customers.

3. Any service supplier within a municipality which has imposed a surcharge pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be given a minimum of forty-five days written notice prior to the date it shall begin to add such surcharge to the billings of its customers or prior to any modification to or change in the surcharge amount.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

4. The surcharge established pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be imposed on a per access line basis on all current bills rendered for local exchange access service within the 911 service area.

5. No such surcharge shall be imposed upon more than seventy-five exchange access lines per customer per location.

6. Lifeline customers, a public safety agency and any municipality which has enacted a local law pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be exempt from any surcharge imposed under this section.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately provided, however that:

(a) this act shall expire and be deemed repealed 10 years after such date;

(b) the provisions of subdivision 1 of section 336 of the county law, as added by section one of this act, shall apply to bills rendered to communications service customers by a communications service supplier on and after the expiration of the notice period required pursuant to the provisions of subdivision 3 of such section; and

(c) a service supplier may treat the address used by such supplier for any communications customer under a service contract or agreement in effect on the effective date of the local law imposing such surcharge, as that communications customer's place of primary use for the remaining term of such service contract or agreement, excluding any extension or renewal of such service contract or agreement, for purposes of determining the taxing jurisdiction with respect to taxes on communications service.
