AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to a tax credit for employment of an individual who has successfully completed a judicial diversion program or graduated from a drug court

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 55 to read as follows:

55. Credit for employment of individuals who have graduated from drug court or have successfully completed a judicial diversion program. (a) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in this subdivision, against the tax imposed by this article, if it employs an individual who has graduated from drug court or has successfully completed a judicial diversion program pursuant to article two hundred sixteen of the criminal procedure law, provided that such individual is employed for thirty-five hours or more per week and remains in the employ of such taxpayer for a minimum of twelve months.

(b) Amount of credit. A credit authorized by this section shall equal three thousand dollars per hired individual for the first year of employment and an additional one thousand dollars if the individual remains in employ for an additional twelve months.

(c) Application of credit. The credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year shall not reduce the tax due for such year to less than the amount prescribed in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of this section. If, however, the amount of credits allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year reduces the tax to such amount, any amount of credit thus not deductible in such taxable year shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section one thousand eighty-six of this chapter. Provided, however, the provisions of subsection (c) of section one thousand eighty-eight of this chapter notwithstanding, no interest shall be paid thereon.

(d) Credit recapture. For provisions requiring recapture of credit, see section forty-four of this chapter.

§ 2. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xlvi) to read as follows:

(xlvi) Employment of individuals who have graduated from drug court or have successfully completed a judicial diversion program tax credit under subsection (kkk)	Amount of credit under subdivision fifty-five of section two hundred ten-B

§ 3. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (kkk) to read as follows:

(kkk) Tax credit for employment of individuals who have graduated from drug court or have successfully completed a judicial diversion program. (1) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in this subsection, against the tax imposed by this article, if it employs an individual who has graduated from drug court or who has successfully completed a judicial diversion program pursuant to article two hundred sixteen of the criminal procedure law, provided that such individual is employed for thirty-five hours or more per week and remains in the employ of such taxpayer for twelve months.

(2) Amount of credit. A credit authorized by this section shall equal three thousand dollars per hired individual for the first year of employment and an additional one thousand dollars if the individual remains in employ for an additional twelve months.

(3) Application of credit. The credit allowed under this subsection for any taxable year shall not reduce the tax due for such year to less than the higher of the amount prescribed in paragraphs (c) and (d) of subdivision one of section two hundred ten-B of this chapter. If, however, the amount of credits allowed under this subsection for any taxable year reduces the tax to such amount, any amount of credit thus not deductible in such taxable year shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section one thousand eighty-six of this chapter. Provided, however, the provisions of subsection (c) of section one thousand eighty-eight of this chapter notwithstanding, no interest shall be paid thereon.

(4) Credit recapture. For provisions requiring recapture of credit, see section forty-four of this chapter.

§ 4. Section 1511 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (ee) to read as follows:

(ee) Credit for employment of individuals who have graduated from drug court or have successfully completed a judicial diversion program. (1) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in this subsection, against the tax imposed by this article, if it employs an individual who has graduated from drug court

1 or has successfully completed a judicial diversion program pursuant to
2 article two hundred sixteen of the criminal procedure law, provided that
3 such individual is employed for thirty-five hours or more per week and
4 remains in the employ of such taxpayer for a minimum of twelve months.

5 (2) Amount of credit. A credit authorized by this section shall equal 6 three thousand dollars per hired individual for the first year of 7 employment and an additional one thousand dollars if the individual
8 remains in employ for an additional twelve months.

9 (3) Application of credit. The credit allowed under this subsection
10 shall not reduce the tax due for such year to be less than the minimum
11 fixed by paragraph four of subdivision (a) of section fifteen hundred 12 two or section fifteen hundred two-a of this article, whichever is 13 applicable. However, if the amount of the credit allowed under this 14 subsection for any taxable year reduces the taxpayer's tax of such 15 amount, any amount of credit thus not deductible will be treated as an 16 overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the 17 provisions of section one thousand eighty-six of this chapter. Provided,
18 however, the provisions of subsection (c) of one thousand eighty-eight
19 of this chapter notwithstanding, no interest shall be paid thereon.

20 (4) Credit recapture. For provisions requiring recapture of credit,
21 see section forty-four of this chapter.

22 § 5. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-
23 ing the date on which it shall have become a law, and shall apply to 24 taxable years beginning on or after such date and to employees hired on 25 or after such date.
