AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to application of the state uniform fire prevention and building code and relevant local building and fire regulations to certain premises

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 383 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 5 to read as follows:

3 5. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the building 4 and fire regulations generally applicable in any village, town, city, or 5 county within the state shall apply to all buildings and structures
6 owned by or in which space is leased by state agencies and covered 7 authorities, as such terms are defined in section two-a of the state 8 finance law, in such village, town, city, or county irrespective of when 9 such buildings or structures were built or put into service. For the 10 purpose of this subdivision, the building and fire regulations generally 11 applicable shall mean the relevant local building and fire regulations 12 enacted or adopted by a local government that are in effect pursuant to 13 paragraph c of subdivision one of this section or section three hundred 14 seventy-nine of this article or, where no such local building and fire
15 regulations are in effect, the code. Existing buildings and structures 16 constructed before the effective date of this subdivision shall be 17 subject to the building and fire regulations generally applicable pursu-18 ant to a staged plan developed by the office of general services, which

1 may provide for compliance over a period of not more than five years, or 2 if the office of general services shall determine that there are reasons
3 requiring delay, not more than ten years, unless such building or struc-
4 ture is altered, in which case the building and fire regulations gener-5 ally applicable shall immediately apply to all alterations to such 6 building or structure. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this 7 subdivision, the legislature may exempt a specific building or struc-
8 ture, which shall be identified by its legal description and street 9 address, if applicable, from any building and fire regulations that 10 would otherwise apply under this subdivision.

11 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 12 it shall have become a law.
