~~a single county, you may ask the officer to take you or make arrangements to take you and your children to a place of safety in the county where the incident occurred. If you or your children are in need of medical treatment, you have the right to request that the officer assist you in obtaining such medical treatment. You may request a copy of any incident reports at no cost from the law enforcement agency. You have the right to seek legal counsel of your own choosing and if you proceed in family court and if it is determined that you cannot afford an attorney, one must be appointed to represent you without cost to you.~~

~~You may ask the district attorney or a law enforcement officer to file a criminal complaint. You also have the right to file a petition in the family court when a family offense has been committed against you. You have the right to have your petition and request for an order of protection filed on the same day you appear in court, and such request must be heard that same day or the next day court is in session. Either court may issue an order of protection from conduct constituting a family offense which could include, among other provisions, an order for the respondent or defendant to stay away from you and your children. The family court may also order the payment of temporary child support and award temporary custody of your children. If the family court is not in session, you may seek immediate assistance from the criminal court in obtaining an order of protection.~~

~~The forms you need to obtain an order of protection are available from the family court and the local criminal court (the addresses and telephone numbers shall be listed). The resources available in this community for information relating to domestic violence, treatment of injuries, and places of safety and shelters can be accessed by calling the following 800 numbers (the statewide English and Spanish language 800 numbers shall be listed and space shall be provided for local domestic violence hotline telephone numbers).~~

~~Filing a criminal complaint or a family court petition containing allegations that are knowingly false is a crime."]~~ "Are you the victim of domestic violence? If you need help now, you can call 911 for the police to come to you. You can also call a domestic violence hotline. You can have a confidential talk with an advocate at the hotline about help you can get in your community including: where you can get treatment for injuries, where you can get shelter, where you can get support, and what you can do to be safe. The New York State 24-hour Domestic & Sexual Violence Hotline number is (insert the statewide multilingual 800 number). They can give you information in many languages. If you are deaf or hard of hearing, call 711. This is what the police can do:

They can help you and your children find a safe place such as a family or friend's house or a shelter in your community.

You can ask the officer to take you or help you and your children get to a safe place in your community.

They can help connect you to a local domestic violence program.

They can help you get to a hospital or clinic for medical care.

They can help you get your personal belongings.

They may, and sometimes must, arrest the person who harmed you if you are the victim of a crime. The person arrested could be released at any time, so it is important to plan for your safety.

If you have been abused or threatened, this is what you can ask the police or district attorney to do:

1 File a criminal complaint against the person who harmed you.

2 Ask the criminal court to issue an order of protection for you and
3 your child if the district attorney files a criminal case with the
4 court.

5 Give you information about filing a family offense petition in your
6 local family court.

10 To have your family offense petition filed the same day you go to
11 court.

12 To have your request heard in court the same day you file or the next
13 day court is open.

14 Only a judge can issue an order of protection. The judge does that as 15 part of a criminal or family court case against the person who harmed
16 you. An order of protection in family court or in criminal court can 17 say:

18 That the other person have no contact or communication with you by 19 mail, phone, computer or through other people.

25 and not get any more firearms.

27 That the other person pay temporary child support.

28 That the other person not harm your pets or service animals.

29 If the family court is closed because it is night, a weekend, or a
30 holiday, you can go to a criminal court to ask for an order of 31 protection.

32 If you do not speak English or cannot speak it well, you can ask the 33 police, the district attorney, or the criminal or family court to get
34 you an interpreter who speaks your language. The interpreter can help
35 you explain what happened.

37 your local family court (insert addresses and contact information for 38 courts). You can also get them online: www.NYCourts.gov/forms.

40 You have a right to get a lawyer in the family court. If the family
41 court finds that you cannot afford to pay for a lawyer, it must get you
42 one for free.
