AN ACT to amend the retirement and social security law, in relation to annual earnings limitations for retired police officers employed by a police department as part-time police officers or by a school district as school resource officers during states of emergency

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 212 of the retirement and social security law is 2 amended by adding a new subdivision 4 to read as follows:

3 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions one and two of this 4 section, in the event a state of emergency is declared for all or a 5 portion of this state, such annual earnings limitations for a retired 6 police officer employed by a police department as a part-time police 7 officer or a retired police officer employed by a school district in 8 either the classified or unclassified service as a school resource offi-9 cer, school safety officer, school security officer or any other 10 substantially similar position or office that is designed to provide 11 safety and/or security on school grounds, provided that such retired 12 police officer is duly qualified, competent and physically fit for 13 performance of the duties of the position in which he or she is to be 14 employed as determined by the school district and is properly certified 15 where such certification is required, shall be $65,000 for the duration 16 of such state of emergency, provided that such retired police officer is 17 employed by a police department or school district located within the 18 area for which such state of emergency is declared.

19 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
