Introduced by Sen. ROBACH -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Insurance

AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to allowing victims of domestic violence the opportunity to designate an alternate address for health insurance claims or billing purposes

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subsections (f) and (g) of section 2612 of the insurance 2 law, subsection (f) as amended by chapter 246 of the laws of 2005 and 3 subsection (g) as added by chapter 361 of the laws of 2006, are amended 4 to read as follows:

5 (f) If any person covered by an insurance policy issued to another 6 person as the policyholder delivers to the insurer that issued the poli-7 cy, at its home office, (i) a valid order of protection against the 8 policyholder, issued by a court of competent jurisdiction in this state, 9 or (ii) a request to designate an alternative mailing address, telephone 10 number or other contact information for the purpose of receiving specif-11 ic claim information or for specific billing purposes relating to such 12 insured accompanied by a signed statement made under oath that he or she 13 is a victim of domestic violence and the disclosure of such information 14 would endanger him or her the insurer shall be prohibited for the dura-15 tion of the order, or until the request made pursuant to this paragraph, 16 is cancelled by the requesting party in writing from disclosing to the 17 policyholder the address [~~and~~], telephone number or other contact infor-
18 mation of the insured, or of any person or entity providing covered 19 services to the insured or from mailing any information described in 20 this paragraph to any address other than the designated alternative 21 address provided pursuant to such paragraph. If a child is the covered 22 person, the right established by this subsection may be asserted by, and 23 shall also extend to, the parent or guardian of the child. The super-
