2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

October 2, 2019

Introduced by Sens. KAMINSKY, BROOKS, GAUGHRAN, KAPLAN, MARTINEZ, THOMAS, BOYLE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the penal law and the environmental conservation law, in relation to the disposal, possession and acceptance of solid waste and hazardous materials and to establishing crimes related to sand mining

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding seven new sections 2 145.71, 145.72, 145.73, 145.74, 145.75, 145.76 and 145.77 to read as 3 follows: § 145.71 Criminal disposal in the fourth degree. 4 A person is guilty of criminal disposal in the fourth degree when: 5 1. with intent to dispose of solid waste as defined in paragraph b of б 7 subdivision one of section 19-0306 of the environmental conservation law 8 on the property of another, he or she disposes solid waste on such prop-9 erty; or 10 2. with intent to dispose of construction and demolition material on 11 the property of another, he or she disposes such material on such prop-12 erty. 13 Criminal disposal in the fourth degree is a class A misdemeanor. 14 § 145.72 Criminal disposal in the third degree. 15 A person is guilty of criminal disposal in the third degree when: 1. with intent to dispose of solid waste on the property of another, 16 17 he or she disposes of either ten cubic yards or more, or twenty thousand 18 pounds or more, of solid waste as defined in paragraph b of subdivision 19 one of section 19-0306 of the environmental conservation law on such 20 property; or 21 2. with intent to dispose of construction and demolition material 22 the property of another, he or she disposes of either ten cubic yards or

2	ty.
3	Criminal disposal in the third degree is a class E felony.
4	§ 145.73 Criminal disposal in the second degree.
5	A person is guilty of criminal disposal in the second degree when:
6	1. with intent to dispose of solid waste as defined in paragraph b of 7	subdivision one of section 19-0306 of the environmental conservation law
8	on the property of another, he or she disposes of either seventy cubic 9	yards or more or one hundred forty thousand pounds or more of solid
10	waste on such property; or
11	2. with intent to dispose of construction and demolition material on 12	the property of another, he or she disposes of either seventy cubic
13	yards or more or one hundred forty thousand pounds or more of such mate-
14	rial on such property.
15	Criminal disposal in the second degree is a class D felony.
16	§ 145.74 Criminal disposal in the first degree.
17	A person is guilty of criminal disposal in the first degree when:
18	1. with intent to dispose of a hazardous substance as defined by the 19	department of environmental conservation on the property of another, he 20	or she disposes of a hazardous substance on such property; or 21	2. he or she recklessly disposes of an acutely hazardous substance as 22	defined by the department of environmental conservation on the property of another
23 24	of another. Criminal disposal in the first degree is a class C felony.
24 25	§ 145.75 Aggravated criminal disposal.
26	A person is quilty of aggravated criminal disposal when, with intent
27	to dispose of an acutely hazardous substance as defined by the depart-28	ment of environmental conservation on the property of another, he or she 29	disposes of an acutely hazardous substance on such property.
30	Aggravated criminal disposal is a class B felony.
31	§ 145.76 Presumptions.
32	1. For the purposes of this article, it shall be a rebuttable presump-
33	tion that the presence of a hazardous or acutely hazardous substance as 34	defined in article thirty-seven of the environmental conservation law in 35	any material released into the environment is evidence of the knowing
36	release of such substance by any person who caused or attempted to cause
37	the release of such substance.
38	2. For the purposes of this article, the possession of an aggregate
39	amount of ten or more cubic yards or twenty thousand pounds of material
40	containing a hazardous or acutely hazardous substance as defined in 41	article thirty-seven of the environmental conservation law without the 42	documentation required by section 27-0305 of the environmental conserva-
43	tion law is presumptive evidence that the defendant knowingly possessed
44	such substance.
45	§ 145.77 Enhanced penalties.
46	1. When a person is convicted of a crime defined in sections 145.71,
47	145.72, 145.73, 145.74, 145.80, 145.81, 145.85, 145.86 or 145.87, and
48	such conduct resulted in the contamination of groundwater, whether or
49	not such contamination resulted in injury to any person or further 50
51	damage to property, such crime shall be deemed to be one category higher damage to property, such crime shall be deemed to be one category higher than the offense the defendant committed.

1	(b) the maximum term of the indeterminate sentence must be at least
2 3	four years if the defendant is sentenced pursuant to section 70.05 of this chapter; and
3 4	(c) the maximum term of the indeterminate sentence must be at least 5	ten years if the defendant is sentenced pursuant to section 70.06 of
6 7	<pre>this chapter. § 2. Section 145.13 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 45 of the</pre>
8	laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:
9	§ 145.13 Definitions.
10	1. (a) For the purposes of sections 145.00, 145.05, 145.10 [and],
11	145.12, 145.71, 145.72, 145.73, 145.74 and 145.75 of this article[+],
12	"[Property] property of another" shall include all property in which 13	another person has an ownership interest, whether or not a person who 14	damages such property, or any other person, may also have an interest in 15	such property.
16	(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subdivision, for purposes of 17	sections 145.71, 145.72, 145.73, 145.74 and 145.75 of this article,
18	"property of another" shall not include any landfills, recycling, and/or
19	transfer stations that are permitted or registered with the department
20	of environmental conservation to receive solid waste, hazardous waste,
21	or acutely hazardous waste.
22	2. For the purposes of sections 145.71, 145.72, 145.73, 145.81 and 23	145.85 of this article, "construction and demolition material" shall
24	mean materials resulting from the alteration, construction, destruction,
25	rehabilitation, or repair of any man-made structure, including houses,
26	buildings, industrial or commercial facilities and roadways.
27	§ 3. The penal law is amended by adding two new sections 190.66 and 28	190.68 to read as follows:
29	§ 190.66 Scheme to defraud by disposal of solid waste.
30	1. A person is guilty of a scheme to defraud by disposal of solid
31	waste when he or she engages in a systematic ongoing course of conduct
32	with intent to defraud more than one person by disposing solid waste as 33 34	defined in paragraph b of subdivision one of section 19-0306 of the environmental conservation law on such person's property under false or 34 35	fraudulent pretenses, representations or promises, and so damages the 36	property of one or more of such persons.
37	2. In any prosecution under this section, it shall be necessary to 38	prove the identity of at least one person on whose property the defend-
39	ant disposed of solid waste pursuant to subdivision one of this section,
40	but it shall not be necessary to prove the identity of any other victim
41	or intended victim.
42	Scheme to defraud by disposal of solid waste is a class E felony.
43	§ 190.68 Scheme to defraud by sand mining.
44	A person is guilty of scheme to defraud by sand mining when he or she 45	engages in a scheme constituting an ongoing course of conduct with
46	intent to defraud more than one person by extracting naturally-occurring
47	sand from property belonging to such other persons under false or frau-
48	dulent pretenses, representations or promises, and so removes such sand
49	from such property.
50	It is necessary to prove the identity of at least one person from 51	whose property the defendant fraudulently extracted sand, but it is not
52	necessary to prove the identity of any other victim.
53	Scheme to defraud by sand mining is a class E felony.
54	§ 4. The penal law is amended by adding five new sections 145.80,
55	145.81, 145.85, 145.86 and 145.87 to read as follows:
56	§ 145.80 Criminal possession of solid waste in the second degree.

S. 6758

A person is guilty of criminal possession of solid waste in the second 1 2 degree when he or she knowingly and unlawfully possesses solid waste as 3 defined in paragraph b of subdivision one of section 19-0306 of the 4 environmental conservation law outside of the city of New York, with the 5 intent to dispose of such solid waste in contravention of the environб mental conservation law or applicable regulations. 7 Criminal possession of solid waste in the second degree is a class A 8 misdemeanor. 9 § 145.81 Criminal possession of solid waste in the first degree. 10 A person is quilty of criminal possession of solid waste in the first 11 degree when he or she commits the crime of criminal possession of solid waste in the second degree or criminal acceptance of solid waste or 12 13 construction and demolition material, and has previously been convicted 14 of any crime in section 145.71, 145.72, 145.73, 145.74, 145.75, 145.80, 145.81, 145.85, 145.86, 145.87 or 190.66 of this part. 15 16 Criminal possession of solid waste in the first degree is a class D 17 felony. § 145.85 Criminal acceptance of solid waste or construction and demoli-18 tion material. 19 20 A person is guilty of criminal acceptance of solid waste or 21 construction and demolition material when, knowing that he or she does not possess a permit or registration as required by the department of 22 environmental conservation to receive or store solid waste as defined in 23 paragraph b of subdivision one of section 19-0306 of the environmental 24 25 conservation law or construction and demolition material, he or she 26 solicits, accepts or agrees to accept solid waste or construction and 27 demolition material from another person. For purposes of this section, a proprietor, director, manager, agent, or employee of a corporation, 28 partnership, or other business entity shall be presumed to be operating 29 30 knowingly if such proprietor, director, manager, agent, or employee of a 31 corporation, partnership, or other business entity fails to possess a 32 permit or registration as required by the department of environmental 33 conservation, and knows or reasonably should have known that such permit 34 or registration is required for acceptance of such material. 35 Criminal acceptance of solid waste or construction and demolition material is a class A misdemeanor. 36 § 145.86 Criminal acceptance of a hazardous substance. 37 38 1. A person is guilty of criminal acceptance of a hazardous substance 39 when he or she solicits, accepts or agrees to accept material containing a hazardous substance as defined by the department of environmental 40 41 conservation and thereby causes such substance to be released into the 42 environment. 2. In any prosecution for criminal acceptance of a hazardous 43 44 substance, it is no defense that the defendant has been issued a permit 45 or registration to operate a solid waste facility by the department of 46 environmental conservation. Criminal acceptance of a hazardous substance is a class D felony. 47 48 § 145.87 Criminal acceptance of an acutely hazardous substance. 1. A person is guilty of criminal acceptance of an acutely hazardous 49 50 substance when he or she solicits, accepts or agrees to accept material 51 containing an acutely hazardous substance as defined by the department of environmental conservation and thereby causes such substance to be 52 53 released into the environment. 54 2. In any prosecution for criminal acceptance of an acutely hazardous

55 substance, it is no defense that the defendant has been issued a permit

1	or registration to operate a solid waste facility by the department of
2	environmental conservation.
3	Criminal acceptance of an acutely hazardous substance is a class C
4	felony.
5	§ 6. Section 105.10 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 489 of the б	laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:
7	§ 105.10 Conspiracy in the fourth degree.
8	A person is guilty of conspiracy in the fourth degree when, with 9	intent that conduct constituting:
10	1. a class B or class C felony be performed, he or she agrees with one
11	or more persons to engage in or cause the performance of such conduct;
12	or
13	2. a felony be performed, he or she, being over eighteen years of age,
14	agrees with one or more persons under sixteen years of age to engage in 15	or cause the performance of such conduct; or 16	3. the felony of money laundering in the third degree as defined in 17	section 470.10 of this chapter, be performed, he or she agrees with one 18	or more persons to engage in or cause the performance of such 19	conduct[+]; or
20	4. a felony related to criminal disposal as defined in section 145.72,
21	145.73 or 145.74 of this part be performed, he or she agrees with one or
22	more persons to engage in or cause the performance of such conduct.
23	Conspiracy in the fourth degree is a class E felony.
24	§ 7. Section 27-0305 of the environmental conservation law is amended
25	by adding a new subdivision 13 to read as follows:
26	13. Any individual, corporation, or any other public or private entity
27	registered or permitted by the department to remove, transport, accept,
28	store, or dispose of solid waste, construction and demolition material,
29	limited use fill, and restricted use fill shall document the movement of 30	such material from the point at which the individual, corporation or 31	entity receives such material to the point in which the individual,
32	corporation or entity provides that material to another individual,
33	corporation or entity or to its point of final disposition.
34	§ 8. Subdivision 4 of section 175.05 of the penal law is amended and a
35	new subdivision 5 is added to read as follows:
36	4. Prevents the making of a true entry or causes the omission thereof
37	in the business records of an enterprise[+] ; or
38	5. Makes or causes a false entry in a solid waste tracking document
39	required by section 27-0305 of the environmental conservation law.
40	§ 9. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 175.50 to read
41	as follows:
42	§ 175.50 Failure to maintain solid waste tracking documents.
43	An individual, corporation, or any other public or private entity
44	registered or permitted by the department of environmental conservation
45	to remove, transport, accept, store, or dispose of solid waste,
46	construction and demolition material, limited use fill, and restricted
47	use fill is guilty of failure to maintain solid waste tracking documents
48	when such individual, corporation or entity fails to maintain proper
49	documentation detailing the movement of such material from the point at 50	which the individual, corporation or entity receives such material to 51	the point in which the individual, corporation or entity provides that 52	material to another individual, corporation or entity or to its point of 53	final disposition.
54	Failure to maintain solid waste tracking documents is a class A misde-

55 meanor.

1	§ 10. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 175.35 of the penal 2	law, as added by chapter 490 of the laws of 2013, is amended and a new
3	subdivision 3 is added to read as follows:
4	(b) such instrument is a financing statement the contents of which are prescribed by section 9502 of the uniform commercial code, the collat-
6	eral asserted to be covered in such statement is the property of a
7	person who is a state or local officer as defined by section two of the 8	public officers law or who otherwise is a judge or justice of the 9	unified court system, such financing statement does not relate to an 10	actual transaction, and he or she filed such financing statement in 11	retaliation for the performance of official duties by such person[+]; or 12	3. with the intent to use property for another purpose that would 13	otherwise require a permit from a state agency, he or she presents a
14	written instrument to receive a permit for agricultural or building
15	purposes for such property to a public office, public servant, public 16	authority, or public benefit corporation, with the intent to defraud the 17	state or any political subdivision, public authority or public benefit
18	corporation of the state with the knowledge or belief that it will be 19	filed with, registered or recorded in or otherwise become a part of the 20	records of such public office.
21	§ 11. The penal law is amended by adding seven new sections 270.40,
22	270.45, 270.50, 270.55, 270.60, 270.65 and 270.70 to read as follows:
23	§ 270.40 Criminal sand mining in the second degree.
24	A person is quilty of criminal sand mining in the second degree when,
25	with intent to remove more than one thousand tons or seven hundred fifty
26	cubic yards of sand from any residential, commercial, industrial or farm
27	land where the sand is naturally occurring, he or she removes, directs,
28	importunes or intentionally aids another to extract sand from such prop-
29	erty, without a valid mining permit or registration issued by the 30	department of environmental conservation.
31	Criminal sand mining in the second degree is a class E felony.
32	§ 270.45 Criminal sand mining in the first degree.
