

STATE OF NEW YORK

6818

2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

October 28, 2019

Introduced by Sen. KAMINSKY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing certain offenses based on homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled substance, establishing the offense of criminal sale of a controlled substance to a child in the first degree, expanding the definition of controlled substances with respect to certain offenses, increasing the felony classification of certain controlled substance offenses and including electronic prescriptions and blank prescription forms in the definition of certain controlled substance offenses

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding three new sections
2 125.28, 125.29 and 125.30 to read as follows:

3 § 125.28 Homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled substance in the 4 third degree.

5 A person is guilty of homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled 6 substance in the third degree when he or she:

7 1. Commits the offense of: (a) (i) criminal sale of a controlled
8 substance in the fifth degree as defined in section 220.31 of this chap-
9 ter; (ii) criminal sale of a controlled substance in the fourth degree
10 as defined in section 220.34 of this chapter; (iii) criminal sale of a 11 controlled substance in the third degree as defined in section 220.39 of 12 this chapter; (iv) criminal sale of a controlled substance in the second 13 degree as defined in section 220.41 of this chapter; or (v) criminal
14 sale of a controlled substance in the first degree as defined in section 15 220.43 of this chapter; and

16 (b) the controlled substance sold causes, or contributes to, the death
17 of the person to whom the controlled substance was sold.

18 2. It shall be a rebuttable presumption that the controlled substance
19 sold pursuant to subdivision one of this section caused or contributed

1 to the death of the person where the type of controlled substance sold,
2 alone or in combination with other substances, is determined to be the
3 cause of death of the person when the death occurs within twenty-four 4 hours of the sale.

5 3. The provisions of article two hundred sixteen of the criminal
6 procedure law shall not apply to a violation of this section. Nothing
7 contained in this section shall prevent the court from sentencing a
8 person convicted under this section to any other sentence authorized by 9 law under articles sixty-five and seventy of this chapter.

10 4. Where a person (hereinafter "seller") violates the provisions of 11 paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this section but the seller, in good 12 faith, sought health care for the other person whose death resulted from 13 the ingestion of the controlled substance sold, while that other person 14 was experiencing the drug or alcohol overdose or other life threatening 15 medical emergency that led to that person's death, the seller shall not 16 be charged or prosecuted under this section or article two hundred twenty 17 of this chapter when the sale was not for consideration or other 18 benefit or gain.

19 5. It shall be an affirmative defense to a violation of this section
20 or a violation of article two hundred twenty of this chapter where a 21 seller violates paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this section and the 22 sale was for consideration or other benefit or gain, but the seller, in 23 good faith, sought health care for the other person whose death resulted 24 from the ingestion of the controlled substance sold, while that other 25 person was experiencing a drug or alcohol overdose or other life threat-26 ening medical emergency that led to that person's death, and the defend-27 ant has no prior conviction for the commission or attempted commission 28 of a class A-I, A-II or B felony under article two hundred twenty of 29 this chapter.

30 Homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled substance in the third 31 degree is a class D felony.

32 § 125.29 Homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled substance in the 33 second degree.

34 A person is guilty of homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled 35 substance in the second degree when he or she:

36 1. Commits the offense of: (a) (i) criminal sale of a controlled
37 substance in the fifth degree as defined in section 220.31 of this chap-
38 ter; (ii) criminal sale of a controlled substance in the fourth degree
39 as defined in section 220.34 of this chapter; (iii) criminal sale of a
40 controlled substance in the third degree as defined in section 220.39 of 41 this chapter; (iv) criminal sale of a controlled substance in the second
42 degree as defined in section 220.41 of this chapter; or (v) criminal
43 sale of a controlled substance in the first degree as defined in section 44 220.43 of this chapter; and

45 (b) the controlled substance sold causes, or contributes, to the death 46 of the person to whom the controlled substance was sold; and

47 (c) (i) an additional substance was added to the controlled substance 48 sold which enhances the effects of the controlled substance and/or 49 increases the danger of ingestion; or

50 (ii) the person to whom the controlled substance was sold was impaired 51 by one or more substances at the time of the sale; or

52 (iii) the person knew, or had reason to know, that the person to whom 53 the controlled substance was sold was using, or intended to use, one or 54 more other substances in conjunction with the controlled substance sold; 55 or

1 (iv) the person knew, or had reason to know, that the person to whom 2 the controlled substance was sold had completed a rehabilitation 3 program, or overdosed, within thirty days of the sale.

4 2. It shall be a rebuttable presumption that the controlled substance
5 sold pursuant to subdivision one of this section caused or contributed
6 to the death of the person where the type of controlled substance sold,
7 alone or in combination with other substances, is determined to be the 8 cause of death of the person when the death occurs within twenty-four 9 hours of the sale.

10 3. The provisions of article two hundred sixteen of the criminal
11 procedure law shall not apply to a violation of this section. Nothing
12 contained in this section shall prevent the court from sentencing a
13 person convicted under this section to any other sentence authorized by 14 law under articles sixty-five and seventy of this chapter.

15 4. Where a person (hereinafter "seller") violates the provisions of 16 subdivision one of this section but the seller, in good faith, sought 17 health care for the other person whose death resulted from the ingestion 18 of the controlled substance sold, while that other person was experienc-19 ing the drug or alcohol overdose or other life threatening medical emer-20 gency that led to that person's death, the seller shall not be charged 21 or prosecuted under this section or article two hundred twenty of this 22 chapter when the sale was not for consideration or other benefit or 23 gain.

24 5. It shall be an affirmative defense to a violation of this section
25 or a violation of article two hundred twenty of this chapter where a 26 seller violates the provisions of subdivision one of this section and 27 the sale was for consideration or other benefit or gain, but the seller, 28 in good faith, sought health care for the other person whose death 29 resulted from the ingestion of the controlled substance sold, while that 30 other person was experiencing a drug or alcohol overdose or other life 31 threatening medical emergency that led to that person's death, and the 32 defendant has no prior conviction for the commission or attempted 33 commission of a class A-I, A-II or B felony under article two hundred 34 twenty of this chapter.

35 Homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled substance in the second 36 degree is a class C felony.

37 § 125.30 Homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled substance in the 38 first degree.

39 A person is guilty of homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled 40 substance in the first degree when he or she:

41 1. Commits the offense of criminal sale of a controlled substance to a 42 child in the first degree as defined in section 220.49 of this chapter 43 and the controlled substance sold causes, or contributes, to the death
44 of the person to whom the controlled substance was sold.

45 2. It shall be a rebuttable presumption that the controlled substance
46 sold pursuant to subdivision one of this section caused or contributed
47 to the death of the person where the type of controlled substance sold,
48 alone or in combination with other substances, is determined to be the 49 cause of death of the person when the death occurs within twenty-four 50 hours of the sale.

51 3. The provisions of article two hundred sixteen of the criminal
52 procedure law shall not apply to a violation of this section. Nothing
53 contained in this section shall prevent the court from sentencing a
55 law under articles sixty-five and seventy of this chapter.

4. It shall be an affirmative defense to a violation of this section or a violation of article two hundred twenty of this chapter where a person (hereinafter "seller") violates subdivision one of this section and the sale was for consideration or other benefit or gain, but the seller, in good faith, sought health care for the other person whose death resulted from the ingestion of the controlled substance sold, while that other person was experiencing a drug or alcohol overdose or other life threatening medical emergency that led to that person's death, and the defendant has no prior conviction for the commission or attempted commission of a class A-I, A-II or B felony under article two hundred twenty of this chapter.

Homicide due to criminal sale of a controlled substance in the first degree is a class B felony.
