2. The comptroller may solicit proposals from financial organizations to act as depositories and managers of the program. Financial organizations submitting proposals shall describe the investment instrument which will be held in accounts. The comptroller shall select as program depositories and managers the financial organization, from among the bidding financial organizations that demonstrates the most advantageous combination, both to potential program participants and this state, of the following factors:

(a) financial stability and integrity of the financial organization;

(b) the safety of the investment instrument being offered;

1 4. The comptroller may select more than one financial organization for 2 the program.

3 5. A management contract shall include, at a minimum, terms requiring 4 the financial organization to:

5 (a) take any action required to keep the program in compliance with 6 requirements of section eight hundred sixty-five of this article and any 7 actions not contrary to its contract to manage the program to qualify as 8 an "early childcare savings account" under this article;

9 (b) keep adequate records of each account, keep each account segre-

14 be prepared under subsection fifteen of section eight hundred sixty-five 15 of this article and provide such compilations to the comptroller;

27 reports made by it during the term of the management contract or while 28 it is holding any accounts, other than confidential filings or reports

30 available for review by the comptroller the results of any periodic 31 examination of such manager by any state or federal banking, insurance 32 or securities commission, except to the extent that such report or 33 reports may not be disclosed under applicable law or the rules of such 34 commission; and

35 (i) ensure that any description of the program, whether in writing or 36 through the use of any media, is consistent with the marketing plan as 37 developed pursuant to the provisions of section eight hundred sixty-38 three of this article.

39 6. The comptroller may provide that an audit shall be conducted of the 40 operations and financial position of the program depository and manager 41 at any time if the comptroller has any reason to be concerned about the 42 financial position, the recordkeeping practices, or the status of 43 accounts of such program depository and manager.

44 7. During the term of any contract with a program manager, the comp-45 troller shall conduct an examination of such manager and its handling of 46 accounts. Such examination shall be conducted at least biennially if 47 such manager is not otherwise subject to periodic examination by the 48 superintendent of financial services, the federal deposit insurance
49 corporation or other similar entity.

50 8. (a) If selection of a financial organization as a program manager
51 or depository is not renewed, after the end of its term:

52 (i) accounts previously established and held in investment instruments
53 at such financial organization may be terminated;

54 (ii) additional contributions may be made to such accounts;

55 (iii) no new accounts may be placed with such financial organization; 56 and

1 (iv) existing accounts held by such depository shall remain subject to 2 all oversight and reporting requirements established by the comptroller.

3 (b) If the comptroller terminates a financial organization as a
4 program manager or depository, he or she shall take custody of accounts
5 held by such financial organization and shall seek to promptly transfer 6 such accounts to another financial organization that is selected as a 7 program manager or depository and into investment instruments as similar 8 to the original instruments as possible.

9 9. The comptroller may enter into such contracts as it deems necessary
10 and proper for the implementation of the program.

11 § 865. Program requirements; early childcare savings account. 1. Early 12 childcare savings accounts established pursuant to the provisions of 13 this article shall be governed by the provisions of this section.

14 2. An early childcare savings account may be opened by any person who 15 desires to save money for the payment of the qualified early childcare
16 expenses of the designated beneficiary. An account owner may designate 17 another person as successor owner of the account in the event of the 18 death of the original account owner. Such person who opens an account or 19 any successor owner shall be considered the account owner.

20 (a) An application for such account shall be in the form prescribed by 21 the program and contain the following:

22 (i) the name, address and social security number or employer identifi-
23 cation number of the account owner;

24 (ii) the designation of a designated beneficiary;

25 (iii) the name, address, and social security number of the designated 26 beneficiary; and

27 (iv) such other information as the program may require.

28 (b) The comptroller and the corporation may establish a nominal fee
29 for such application.

30 3. Any person, including the account owner, may make contributions to 31 the account after the account is opened.

32 4. Contributions to accounts may be made only in cash.

33 5. An account owner may withdraw all or part of the balance from an 34 account as authorized under rules governing the program. Such rules 35 shall include provisions that will generally enable the determination as 36 to whether a withdrawal is a nonqualified withdrawal or a qualified 37 withdrawal.

38 6. (a) An account owner may change the designated beneficiary of an 39 account in accordance with procedures established by the memorandum of 40 understanding pursuant to the provisions of section eight hundred 41 sixty-three of this article.

42 (b) An account owner may transfer all or a portion of an account to 43 another early childcare savings account.

44 (c) Changes in designated beneficiaries and transfers under this 45 subdivision shall not be permitted to the extent that they would cause
46 all accounts for the same beneficiary to exceed the permitted aggregate 47 maximum account balance.

48 7. The program shall provide separate accounting for each designated 49 beneficiary.

50 8. No account owner or designated beneficiary of any account shall be 51 permitted to direct the investment of any contributions to an account or 52 the earnings thereon more than two times in any calendar year.

53 9. Neither an account owner nor a designated beneficiary may use an 54 interest in an account as security for a loan. Any pledge of an interest 55 in an account shall be of no force and effect.

10. The comptroller shall promulgate rules or regulations to prevent contributions on behalf of a designated beneficiary in excess of an amount that would cause the aggregate account balance for all accounts for a designated beneficiary to exceed a maximum account balance, as established from time to time by the comptroller.

11. Contributions to an early childcare savings account shall be limited to one hundred thousand dollars per account. This amount shall not take into consideration any gain or loss to the principal investment into the account.

12. In the event that an individual makes a "nonqualified withdrawal" of monies from the early childcare savings account such individual shall have the entire account taxed, including any interest, as though it was income at the account owner's federal tax rate in the tax years the monies were withdrawn, and incur an additional ten percent state penalty on the amount of earnings. The penalty shall be in addition to any taxes due pursuant to a nonqualified withdrawal from an early childcare savings account.

13. Penalties may be waived by the commissioner if the individual can show proof that the reason the individual did not use the qualified childcare expenses was due to either:

(a) an employment relocation outside the state and such relocation required the individual to become a resident of another state;

(b) an unforeseeable emergency;

(c) an absence due to qualifying military service; or

(d) death.

For purposes of this subdivision, an "unforeseeable emergency" shall mean a severe financial hardship resulting from illness, accident or property loss to the account owner, or his or her dependents resulting in circumstances beyond their control. The circumstances that constitute an unforeseeable financial emergency will depend on the facts of each case, however, withdrawal of account funds may not be made, without penalty, to the extent that such hardship is or may be relieved by either:

(i) reimbursement or compensation by insurance or otherwise; or

(ii) liquidation of the individual's assets to the extent the liquidation of such assets would not itself cause severe financial hardship.

14. The commissioner and the comptroller are directed to promulgate all rules and regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this subsection and are hereby directed to establish, supervise and regulate early childcare savings accounts authorized to be created by this section.

15. (a) If there is any distribution from an early childcare savings account to any individual or for the benefit of any individual during a calendar year, such distribution shall be reported to the department and the account owner, the designated beneficiary, or the distributee to the extent required by law or regulation.

(b) Statements shall be provided to each account owner at least once each year within sixty days after the end of the twelve-month period to which they relate. The statement shall identify the contributions made during a preceding twelve-month period, the total contributions made to the account through the end of the period, the value of the account at the end of such period, distributions made during such period and any other information that the comptroller shall require to be reported to the account owner.

(c) Statements and information relating to accounts shall be prepared and filed to the extent required by this chapter.

1 16. An annual fee may be imposed upon the account owner for the main-
2 tenance of the account.

3 17. The program shall disclose the following information in writing to 4 each account owner of an early childcare savings account:

5 (a) the terms and conditions for establishing an early childcare
6 savings account;

7 (b) any restrictions on the substitution of beneficiaries;

8 (c) the person or entity entitled to terminate the early childcare
9 savings agreement;

10 (d) the period of time during which a beneficiary may receive benefits
11 under the early childcare savings agreement;

12 (e) the terms and conditions under which money may be wholly or 13 partially withdrawn from the program, including, but not limited to, any 14 reasonable charges and fees that may be imposed for withdrawal;

15 (f) the probable tax consequences associated with contributions to and 16 distributions from accounts; and

17 (g) all other rights and obligations pursuant to early childcare
18 savings agreements, and any other terms, conditions, and provisions 19 deemed necessary and appropriate by the terms of the memorandum of 20 understanding entered into pursuant to section eight hundred sixty-three 21 of this article.

22 18. Early childcare savings agreements shall be subject to section
23 fourteen-c of the banking law and the "truth-in-savings" regulations
24 promulgated thereunder.

25 19. Nothing in this article or in any early childcare savings agree-
26 ment entered into pursuant to this article shall be construed as a guar-27 antee by the state that the account owner or designated beneficiary will 28 be admitted to a licensed childcare, early education program, family
29 childcare home, or after school program.

30 20. Monies withdrawn from early childcare savings accounts and any 31 interest which has accrued shall not be considered as taxable income to 32 the account owner for state personal income taxation purposes, so long 33 as the monies are applied for the qualified early childcare expenses by 34 the account owner or designated beneficiary of the account.

35 § 866. Program limitations; early childcare savings. 1. Nothing in 36 this article shall be construed to:

37 (a) give any designated beneficiary any rights or legal interest with 38 respect to an account unless the designated beneficiary is the account 39 owner;

40 (b) create state residency for an individual merely because the indi-
41 vidual is a designated beneficiary; or

42 (c) guarantee that amounts saved pursuant to the program will be 43 sufficient to cover the qualified early childcare expenses of a desig-
44 nated beneficiary.

45 2. (a) Nothing in this article shall create or be construed to create 46 any obligation of the comptroller, the state, or any agency or instru-
47 mentality of the state to guarantee for the benefit of the account owner 48 or designated beneficiary with respect to:

49 (i) the rate of interest or other return on any account; or 50 (ii) the payment of interest or other return on any account.

51 (b) The comptroller shall, by rule or regulation, provide that every 52 contract, application, deposit slip or other similar document that may 53 be used in connection with a contribution to an account clearly indicate 54 that the account is not insured by the state and neither the principal 55 deposited nor the investment return is guaranteed by the state.

§ 2. Subsection (b) of section 612 of the tax law is amended by adding a new paragraph 43 to read as follows:

(43) (A) Excess distributions received during the taxable year by a distributee of an early childcare savings account established under the New York state early childcare savings program provided for under article twenty-four-A of this chapter, to the extent such excess distributions are deemed attributable to the deductible contributions under paragraph forty-five of subsection (c) of this section.

(B) (i) The term "excess distributions" means distributions which are not:

(I) qualified withdrawals within the meaning of subsection eight of section eight hundred sixty-two of this chapter;

(II) withdrawals made as a result of the death or disability of the designated beneficiary within the meaning of subsection three of section eight hundred sixty-two of this chapter; or

(III) transfers described in paragraph (b) of subsection six of section eight hundred sixty-five of this chapter.

(ii) Excess distributions shall be deemed attributable to deductible contributions to the extent the amount of any such excess distribution, when added to all previous excess distributions from the account, exceeds the aggregate of all nondeductible contributions to the account.

§ 3. Subsection (c) of section 612 of the tax law is amended by adding two new paragraphs 44 and 45 to read as follows:

(44) Contributions made during the taxable year by an account owner to one or more early childcare savings accounts established under the New York state early childcare savings program provided for under article twenty-four-A of this chapter, to the extent not deductible or eligible for credit for federal income tax purposes; provided, however, the exclusion provided for in this paragraph shall not exceed five thousand dollars for an individual or head of household, and for married couples who file joint tax returns, shall not exceed ten thousand dollars; provided, further that such exclusion shall be available only to the account owner and not to any other person.

(45) Distributions from a family early childcare savings account established under the New York state early childcare savings program provided for under article twenty-four-A of this chapter, to the extent includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes.

§ 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law, and shall apply to taxable years commencing on or after the first of January next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law; provided, however, that effective immediately, the commissioner of taxation and finance and the comptroller are authorized and directed to promulgate any rules or regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this act on its effective date on or before such date.
