Introduced by Sen. CARLUCCI -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities

AN ACT to amend the mental hygiene law and the public health law, in relation to home and community-based care and support for individuals with eating disorders

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 31.25 of the mental hygiene law, as added by chap-
2 ter 24 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 31.25 Residential services for treatment of eating disorders.

4 The commissioner shall establish, pursuant to regulation, licensed
5 residential providers of treatment and/or supportive services to chil-6 dren, adolescents, and adults with eating disorders, as that term is 7 defined in section twenty-seven hundred ninety-nine-e of the public
8 health law. Such regulations shall be developed in consultation with 9 representatives from each of the comprehensive care centers for eating
10 disorders established pursuant to article twenty-seven-J of the public 11 health law and licensed treatment professionals, such as physicians, 12 psychiatrists, psychologists and therapists, with demonstrated expertise 13 in treating patients with eating disorders.

14 In planning discharge and care transition from such residential 15 settings to the individual's own home or apartment, home of a family
16 member or other adult, or to other allowed community settings for home 17 care under article thirty-six of the public health law, the residential 18 provider and comprehensive care center for eating disorders shall 19 consider coordination with home care agency professionals under article 20 thirty-six of such law to provide pre-discharge, transitional and post-21 discharge home and community-based care if conducive to the individual's 22 continued recovery, stability and progressive outcome, including 23 prevention of further, potentially avoidable hospital, emergency room or 24 residential provider admissions. Such home care agency professionals and 25 services may include, but are not limited to, nursing, therapy, social

2 cy services as are sanctioned under subdivision two of section thirty-3 six hundred two of the public health law.

4 § 2. Subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 5 2799-g of the public health law, as added by chapter 114 of the laws of 6 2004, is amended to read as follows:

7 (i) Individual health, psychosocial and case management services, in 8 both noninstitutional and institutional settings, from licensed and 9 certified practitioners with demonstrated experience and expertise in 10 providing services to individuals with eating disorders; such settings 11 and practitioners may include transitional and continued recovery and 12 support services for individuals on an in-home basis provided by home
13 health agencies, home care services agencies or long term home health 14 care programs licensed or certified under article thirty-six of this 15 chapter, provided pursuant to the patient's medical orders, and in coor-
16 dination with comprehensive care centers under this article and/or resi-
17 dential services providers for eating disorders licensed under section 18 31.25 of the mental hygiene law. For purposes of this section, "in-home" 19 means the individual's own home or apartment, home of a family member or 20 other adult, or other allowed community settings for home care under 21 article thirty-six of this chapter, and "transitional and continued 22 recovery and support services" mean nursing, therapy, social work, 23 nutritional counselling, home health aide and other home care agency 24 services as are sanctioned under subdivision two of section thirty-six 25 hundred two of this chapter.

26 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 27 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amend-28 ment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implemen-29 tation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and 30 completed on or before such effective date.
