- h. minimum basic training and in-service training requirements for personnel charged with administration and enforcement of the state energy conservation construction code; [and]
- i. standards and procedures for measuring the rate of compliance with the state energy conservation construction code, and provisions requiring that such rate of compliance be measured on an annual basis [-]; and
- j. standards and procedures by which persons seeking building or construction permits or to purchase property held by a land bank or subsidized by public funds identify any outstanding orders of remedy or immediately hazardous violations of the uniform code on properties held by such person and the status of each order of remedy and violation. Every local government may enact local laws which provide that individuals with outstanding orders of remedy or immediately hazardous violations of the uniform code may not obtain building or construction permits or purchase properties from a land bank or subsidized by public funds.
- 20 § 2. Subdivisions 2 and 3 of section 382 of the executive law, subdi-21 vision 2 as amended by chapter 135 of the laws of 1997 and subdivision 3 22 as added by chapter 707 of the laws of 1981, are amended to read as 23 follows:
- 24 2. Any person, having been served, either personally or by registered 25 or certified mail, with an order to remedy any condition found to exist 26 in, on, or about any building in violation of the uniform fire 27 prevention and building code, who shall fail to comply with such order

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
