IN SENATE

January 16, 2020

- Introduced by Sen. ADDABBO -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Budget and Revenue
- AN ACT to amend the tax law, the insurance law and the executive law, in relation to enacting the residential structure fire prevention act of 2020

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "residen-
2	tial structure fire prevention act of 2020".
3	§ 2. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection
4	(kkk) to read as follows:
5	(kkk) Credit for removing certain fire hazards. (1) Any resident owner
б	of real property as defined in section one hundred two of the real
7	property tax law shall be allowed a credit against the tax otherwise
8	imposed under this article in an amount equal to twenty-five percent of
9	the cost of removing fire hazards commonly known as cock lofts, provided
10	that such credit shall not exceed five thousand dollars. For purposes of
11	this section the term "cock loft" shall mean a completely enclosed space
12	between rafters and a suspended ceiling.
13	(2) If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any shall mean a completely enclosed space between rafters and a suspended ceiling.

§ 4. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 170-d to read as follows: § 170-d. Repair of certain fire hazards. Any state agency or authority, including but not limited to the New York state energy research and development authority, division of housing and community renewal and state of New York mortgage agency, that provides a housing program shall include the repair of cock lofts for the purpose of fire prevention and safety as a qualifying expenditure under any such program. For the purposes of this section, "cock loft" shall mean a completely enclosed space between rafters and a suspended ceiling.
§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2021.
