3. a. On and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred eightyfive, the secretary shall have power to investigate and conduct hearings relative to whether administration and enforcement of the uniform fire prevention and building code complies with the minimum standards promulgated pursuant to subdivision one of this section. At least ten days written notice of any such hearing shall be provided to the elective or 10 appointive chief executive officer or, if there be none, the chairman of the legislative body of the local government or county whose adminis-12 tration and enforcement of the uniform code is at issue.

b. If the secretary receives from any county, official notice that a local government within the county is not providing administration and enforcement of the uniform fire prevention and building code that complies with the minimum standards promulgated pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the secretary shall investigate and conduct hearings in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision.

4. If the secretary determines that a local government has failed to 20 administer and enforce the uniform fire prevention and building code in accordance with the minimum standards promulgated pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the secretary shall take any of the following actions, either individually or in combination in any sequence:
