AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring the state board of parole to reflect the composition of the prison population in race, age and geographic area of residence

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 259-b of the executive law, as amended by section 38-a of subpart A of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

1. There shall be in the department a state board of parole [which] 5 that shall possess the powers and duties hereinafter specified. The 6 board shall function independently of the department regarding all of its decision-making functions, as well as any other powers and duties 8 specified in this article, provided, however, that administrative matters of general applicability within the department shall be applica-9 10 ble to the board. Such board shall consist of not more than nineteen 11 members and not less than fifteen members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. In making appointments to the 13 board, the governor shall ensure that the membership shall adequately 14 reflect the composition of the prison population in race and ethnicity, age, and geographic area of residence. The percentage of each demograph-15 16 ic characteristic of the members shall be directly proportionate to that 17 of the prison population. The term of office of each member of such 18 board shall be for six years; provided, however, that any member chosen to fill a vacancy occurring otherwise than by expiration of term shall 19 20 be appointed, in the manner specified above, for the remainder of the 21 unexpired term of the member whom he or she is to succeed. In the event 22 of the inability to act of any member, the governor may appoint some
