The superintendent of the division of state police shall adopt and promulgate regulations prescribing reporting procedures for such state or local law enforcement agencies, including the form for reporting such information. In addition to any other information which the superintendent of the division of state police may require, the form shall require (a) the serial number or other identifying information on the gun, if available and (b) a brief description of the circumstances under which the gun came into the possession of the law enforcement agency, including the crime which was or may have been committed with the gun. Whenever a state or local law enforcement agency seizes or recovers a gun that was unlawfully possessed, recovered from a crime scene, or is reasonably believed to have been used in or associated with the commission of a crime, or is otherwise recovered as an abandoned or discarded gun, the agency shall report such seized or recovered gun to the criminal gun clearinghouse as soon as practicable, but in no case more than twenty-four hours after the agency has taken possession of such gun. Every report made to the criminal gun clearinghouse will result in the prompt submission of a request to the national tracing center of the bureau of alcohol, tobacco, firearms and explosives to trace the movement of the subject gun and such federal agency will be requested to provide the results of such a trace to the superintendent of the division of state police and to the law enforcement agency that submitted the clearinghouse report.

6. (a) Whenever a state or local law enforcement agency seizes or recovers a gun that was unlawfully possessed, recovered from the scene of a crime, or is reasonably believed to have been used or associated with the commission of a crime, or is recovered by the agency as an abandoned or discarded gun, the agency shall arrange for every such gun that is determined to be suitable for test-firing and of a type that is eligible for national integrated ballistic information network data entry and correlation to be test-fired as soon as practicable, and the results of that test-firing shall be submitted forthwith to the national integrated ballistic information network to determine whether the gun is associated or related to a crime, criminal event, or any individual associated or related to a crime or criminal event or reasonably believed to be associated or related to a crime or criminal event.

(b) Whenever a state or local law enforcement agency recovers any ammunition cartridge case that is of a type that is eligible for national integrated ballistic information network data entry and correlation at a crime scene, or has reason to believe that such recovered ammunition cartridge case is related to or associated with the commission of a crime or the unlawful discharge of a gun, the agency shall, as soon as practicable, arrange for the ballistics information to be submitted to the national integrated ballistic information network.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the first of November next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.

PART R

Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "New York Hate Crime Anti-Terrorism Act".

§ 2. The opening paragraph of section 485.00 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 8 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds and determines as follows: criminal acts involving violence, intimidation and destruction of property based upon bias and prejudice have become more prevalent in New York state in recent years. The intolerable truth is that in these crimes, commonly and justly referred to as "hate crimes", victims are intentionally selected,

1 in whole or in part, because of their race, color, national origin,
2 ancestry, gender, gender identity or expression, religion, religious 3 practice, age, disability or sexual orientation. Hate crimes do more 4 than threaten the safety and welfare of all citizens. They inflict on 5 victims incalculable physical and emotional damage and tear at the very 6 fabric of free society. Crimes motivated by invidious hatred toward 7 particular groups not only harm individual victims but send a powerful 8 message of intolerance and discrimination to all members of the group to 9 which the victim belongs. Hate crimes can and do intimidate and disrupt 10 entire communities and vitiate the civility that is essential to healthy 11 democratic processes. In a democratic society, citizens cannot be 12 required to approve of the beliefs and practices of others, but must 13 never commit criminal acts on account of them. [~~Current law~~] However, 14 these criminal acts do occur and are occurring more and more frequently.
15 Quite often, these crimes of hate are also acts of terror. The recent 16 attacks in Monsey, New York as well as the shootings in El Paso, Texas;
17 Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Sutherland Springs, Texas; Orlando, Florida;
18 and Charleston, South Carolina illustrate that mass killings are often 19 apolitical, motivated by the hatred of a specific group coupled with a 20 desire to inflict mass casualties. The current law emphasizes the poli-21 tical motivation of an act over its catastrophic effect and does not 22 adequately recognize the harm to public order and individual safety that 23 hate crimes cause. Therefore, our laws must be strengthened to provide 24 clear recognition of the gravity of hate crimes and the compelling 25 importance of preventing their recurrence.

26 § 3. Subdivision 3 of section 485.05 of the penal law, as amended by 27 section 9 of part NN of chapter 55 of the laws of 2018, is amended to 28 read as follows:

30 provisions of this chapter: section 120.00 (assault in the third 31 degree); section 120.05 (assault in the second degree); section 120.10

16 four of section 240.30 (aggravated harassment in the second degree); 17 section 490.10 (soliciting or providing support for an act of terrorism 18 in the second degree); section 490.15 (soliciting or providing support 19 for an act of terrorism in the first degree); section 490.20 (making a

47 2010, is amended to read as follows:

48 a. Such bonds shall be sold at par, at par plus a premium, or at a 49 discount to the bidder offering the lowest interest cost to the state, 50 taking into consideration any premium or discount and, in the case of 51 refunding bonds, the bona fide initial public offering price, not less 52 than ~~[four nor more than fifteen days, Sundays excepted,]~~ two business 53 days after the publication of a notice of ~~[such]~~ sale ~~[has been~~ 54 ~~published]~~ at least once in a definitive trade publication of the munic-55 ipal bond industry published on each business day in the state of New 56 York which is generally available in electronic or physical form to

1 participants in the municipal bond industry, which notice shall state 2 the terms of the sale. The comptroller may not change the terms of the 21 rejection, the state comptroller is authorized to negotiate a private 22 sale or readvertise for bids in the form and manner above described as 23 many times as, in his or her judgment, may be necessary to effect a 24 satisfactory sale. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this 25 paragraph, whenever in the judgment of the comptroller the interests of 26 the state will be served thereby, he or she may sell state bonds at 27 private sale at par, at par plus a premium, or at a discount. The comp-28 troller shall promulgate regulations governing the terms and conditions 29 of any such private sales, which regulations shall include a provision 30 that he or she give notice to the governor, the temporary president of
