39. The term "fair housing testing" shall mean a covert housing inves-4 tigation to gather evidence of compliance with this article involving one or more persons who initiate contact with another person or entity for the purpose of comparing how members and non-members of a protected class, as defined by this article, who are otherwise similarly situated are treated. The investigation may also include comparing the observed conduct or business practices to the requirements of fair housing laws and analysis of any publicly available data to identify discriminatory fair housing practices.

§ 2. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 295-a to read as follows:

§ 295-a. Fair housing testing. The attorney general shall conduct 15 yearly fair housing testing to ensure compliance with this article. The 16 results of such fair housing testing shall be reported annually to the governor and the legislature, including the number of tests conducted each year, the number of instances of possible discrimination found as a result of such testing, and any resulting enforcement action brought as a result of such testing. The attorney general may contract to a nonprofit organization that operates a full-service fair housing program 22 and has expertise in conducting fair housing testing for at least two years to execute any portion or all of the fair housing tests. Any 24 organization or individual contracted by the attorney general to perform fair housing testing under this section shall not be precluded from 26 pursuing any and all remedies available under law for any potential
