STATE OF NEW YORK

7685

IN SENATE

February 6, 2020

Introduced by Sen. SEPULVEDA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Crime Victims, Crime and Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to expanding prison work release program eligibility and participation

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 60 of the laws of 1994, the opening paragraph as amended by chapter 320 of the laws of 2006, the closing paragraph as amended by section 42 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

3 4

5

7

8

9

11

14

21

2. "Eligible inmate" means: a person confined in an institution who is eligible for release on parole or who will become eligible for release on parole or conditional release within two years. [Provided, however, that a person under sentence for an offense defined in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision one of section 70.02 of the penal law, where such 10 offense involved the use or threatened use of a deadly weapon or danger-12 ous instrument shall not be eligible to participate in a work release program until he or she is eligible for release on parole or who will be 13 eligible for release on parole or conditional release within eighteen 15 months. Provided, further, however, that a person under a determinate 16 sentence as a second felony drug offender for a class B felony offense 17 defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law, who was 18 sentenced pursuant to section 70.70 of such law, shall not be eligible to participate in a temporary release program until the time served 19 20 under imprisonment for his or her determinate sentence, including any jail time credited pursuant to the provisions of article seventy of the 22 penal law, shall be at least eighteen months. In the case of a person 23 serving an indeterminate sentence of imprisonment imposed pursuant to the penal law in effect after September one, nineteen hundred sixty-sev-24 25 en, for the purposes of this article parole eligibility shall be upon 26 the expiration of the minimum period of imprisonment fixed by the court 27 or where the court has not fixed any period, after service of the mini-

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD14698-01-0

2 S. 7685

29

30

31

32

33

34 35

36

37

38

39

40

41 42

43

44

45

46

47

48

49

50 51

52

mum period fixed by the state board of parole. If an inmate is denied release on parole, such inmate shall not be deemed an eligible inmate until he or she is within two years of his or her next scheduled appear-3 ance before the state parole board. In any case where an inmate is denied release on parole while participating in a temporary release program, the department shall review the status of the inmate to determine if continued placement in the program is appropriate. No person 7 convicted of any escape or absconding offense defined in article two 9 hundred five of the penal law shall be eligible for temporary release. [Further, no person under sentence for aggravated harassment of an 10 employee by an inmate as defined in section 240.32 of the penal law for, 11 any homicide offense defined in article one hundred twenty-five of the 12 penal law, for any sex offense defined in article one hundred thirty of 13 14 the penal law, or for an offense defined in section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law shall be eligible to participate in a work 15 16 release program as defined in subdivision three of this section. Nor 17 shall any person under sentence for any sex offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law be eligible to participate in a community services program as defined in subdivision five of this 18 19 20 section. [Notwithstanding the foregoing, no person who is an otherwise 21 eligible inmate who is under sentence for a crime involving: (a) infliction of serious physical injury upon another as defined in the 22 penal law or (b) any other offense involving the use or threatened use 23 of a deadly weapon may participate in a temporary release program with-24 out the written approval of the commissioner. The commissioner shall 25 26 promulgate regulations giving direction to the temporary release commit-27 tee at each institution in order to aid such committees in carrying out 28 this mandate.

[The governor, by executive order, may exclude or limit the participation of any class of otherwise eligible inmates from participation in a temporary release program. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to affect either the validity of any executive order previously issued limiting the participation of otherwise eligible inmates in such program or the authority of the commissioner to impose appropriate regulations limiting such participation.

- § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 447 of the laws of 1991, the opening paragraph as amended by chapter 252 of the laws of 2005, and the closing paragraph as amended by section 43 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, amended to read as follows:
- 2. "Eligible inmate" means: a person confined in an institution who is eligible for release on parole or who will become eligible for release on parole or conditional release within two years. [Provided, that a person under a determinate sentence as a second felony drug offender for a class B felony offense defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law, who was sentenced pursuant to section 70.70 of such law, shall not be eligible to participate in a temporary release program until the time served under imprisonment for his or her determinate sentence, including any jail time credited pursuant to the provisions of article seventy of the penal law, shall be at least eighteen months.] In the case of a person serving an indeterminate sentence of imprisonment imposed pursuant to the penal law in effect after September one, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, for the purposes of this article parole eligi-54 bility shall be upon the expiration of the minimum period of imprison-55 ment fixed by the court or where the court has not fixed any period, after service of the minimum period fixed by the state board of parole.

3 S. 7685

[If an inmate is denied release on parole, such inmate shall not be 1 deemed an eligible inmate until he or she is within two years of his or 2 her next scheduled appearance before the state parole board. In any 3 case where an inmate is denied release on parole while participating in 4 5 a temporary release program, the department shall review the status of 6 the inmate to determine if continued placement in the program is appro-7 priate. No person convicted of any escape or absconding offense defined 8 in article two hundred five of the penal law shall be eligible for 9 temporary release. [Nor shall any person under sentence for any sex offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law be eligi-10 11 ble to participate in a community services program as defined in subdivision five of this section. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no person 12 13 who is an otherwise eligible inmate who is under sentence for a crime 14 involving: (a) infliction of serious physical injury upon another as defined in the penal law, (b) a sex offense involving forcible compul-15 16 sion, or (c) any other offense involving the use or threatened use of a deadly weapon may participate in a temporary release program without the 17 written approval of the commissioner. An inmate shall not be eligible 18 for work release if he or she is subject to a sentence imposed for 19 20 aggravated murder as defined in section 125.26 of the penal law, murder 21 in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of the penal law, rape in the third degree as defined in section 130.25 of the penal law, rape 22 in the second degree as defined in section 130.30 of the penal law, rape 23 in the first degree as defined in section 130.35 of the penal law, crim-24 25 inal sexual act in the second degree as defined in section 130.45 of the 26 penal law, criminal sexual act in the first degree as defined in section 27 130.50 of the penal law, persistent sexual abuse as defined in section 28 130.53 of the penal law, sexual abuse in the first degree as defined in 29 section 130.65 of the penal law, aggravated sexual abuse in the third 30 degree as defined in section 130.66 of the penal law, aggravated sexual 31 abuse in the second degree as defined in section 130.67 of the penal 32 law, aggravated sexual abuse in the first degree as defined in section 33 130.70 of the penal law, course of sexual conduct against a child in the first degree as defined in section 130.75 of the penal law, course of 34 35 sexual conduct against a child in the second degree as defined in 36 section 130.80 of the penal law, predatory sexual assault as defined in 37 section 130.95 of the penal law, predatory sexual assault against a 38 child as defined in section 130.96 of the penal law, promoting prostitu-39 tion in the second degree as defined in section 230.30 of the penal law, promoting prostitution in the first degree as defined in section 230.32 40 41 of the penal law, compelling prostitution as defined in section 230.33 42 of the penal law, sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the 43 penal law, incest in the first or second degree as defined in article 44 two hundred fifty-five of the penal law, an offense of terrorism defined 45 in article four hundred ninety of the penal law, or an attempt or a 46 conspiracy to commit any such offense. The commissioner shall promulgate 47 regulations giving direction to the temporary release committee at each 48 institution in order to aid such committees in carrying out this 49 mandate. 50

[The governor, by executive order, may exclude or limit the participation of any class of otherwise eligible inmates from participation in a temporary release program. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to affect either the validity of any executive order previous-54 ly issued limiting the participation of otherwise eligible inmates in such program or the authority of the commissioner to impose appropriate regulations limiting such participation.

51

52 53

55

S. 7685 4

33

34 35

36

37

38

39

40 41

42

43

44 45

46

47

48

49 50

51

52

54

55

§ 3. Subdivision 2-a of section 851 of the correction law, as added by chapter 251 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

2-a. Notwithstanding subdivision two of this section, the term "eligi-3 4 shall also include a person confined in an institution who ble inmate" is eligible for release on parole or who will become eligible for release on parole or conditional release within [two] four years, and who was convicted of a homicide offense as defined in article one 7 hundred twenty-five of the penal law or an assault offense defined in 9 article one hundred twenty of the penal law, and who can demonstrate to 10 the commissioner that: (a) the victim of such homicide or assault was a 11 member of the inmate's immediate family as that term is defined in section 120.40 of the penal law or had a child in common with the 12 inmate; (b) the inmate was subjected to substantial physical, sexual 13 14 psychological abuse committed by the victim of such homicide or assault; 15 (c) such abuse was a substantial factor in causing the inmate to 16 commit such homicide or assault. With respect to an inmate's claim that 17 he or she was subjected to substantial physical, sexual or psychological abuse committed by the victim, such demonstration shall include corrobo-18 19 rative material that may include, but is not limited to, witness state-20 ments, social services records, hospital records, law enforcement 21 records and a showing based in part on documentation prepared at or near the time of the commission of the offense or the prosecution thereof 22 tending to support the inmate's claim. Prior to making a determination 23 under this subdivision, the commissioner is required to request and take 24 25 into consideration the opinion of the district attorney who prosecuted 26 the underlying homicide or assault offense and the opinion of the 27 sentencing court. If such opinions are received within forty-five days of the request, the commissioner shall take them into consideration. If 28 29 such opinions are not so received, the commissioner may proceed with the 30 determination. Any action by the commissioner pursuant to this subdivi-31 sion shall be deemed a judicial function and shall not be reviewable in 32 any court.

§ 4. Subdivision 2-b of section 851 of the correction law, as added by chapter 738 of the laws of 2004, is amended to read as follows:

2-b. When calculating in advance the date on which a person is or will be eligible for release on parole or conditional release, for purposes of determining eligibility for temporary release or for placement at an alcohol and substance abuse treatment correctional annex, the commissioner shall consider and include credit for all potential credits and reductions including but not limited to merit time, additional merit time and good behavior allowances. Nothing in this subdivision shall be interpreted as precluding the consideration and inclusion of credit for all potential credits and reductions including, but not limited to, merit time, additional merit time and good behavior allowances when calculating in advance for any other purpose the date on which a person is or will be eligible for release on parole or conditional release.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately, provided however, that the amendments to subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law made by section one of this act shall be subject to the expiration and reversion of such subdivision and section pursuant to subdivision (c) of section 46 of chapter 60 of the laws of 1994 and section 10 of chapter 339 of the laws of 1972, as amended, when upon such date the provisions of section two of this act shall take effect; provided further, that the amendments to subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law made by section two of this act shall expire on the same date as subdivision (c) of section 46 of chapter 60 of the laws of 1994, section 10 of chapter

S. 7685 5

1 339 of the laws of 1972, and section 5 of chapter 554 of the laws of 1986, as amended, expire; provided further that the amendments to subdi-3 visions 2-a and 2-b of section 851 of the correction law, made by

- 4 sections three and four of this act shall not affect the expiration of
- 5 such section and shall expire therewith.