Introduced by Sen. BIAGGI -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Women's Issues

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to the rights of pregnant inmates

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 1 and subdivision 2 of section 611 of the correction law, paragraph (c) of subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 17 of the laws of 2016 and subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 242 of the laws of 1930, are amended and a new subdivision 4 is added to read as follows:

5 (c) No restraints of any kind shall be used when such woman is in 7 labor, admitted to a hospital, institution or clinic for delivery, or recovering after giving birth. Any such personnel as may be necessary to 9 supervise the woman during transport to and from and during her stay at 10 the hospital, institution or clinic shall be provided to ensure adequate 11 care, custody and control of the woman, except that no correctional 12 staff shall be present in the delivery room during the birth of a baby unless requested by the medical staff supervising such delivery or by 14 the woman giving birth. The woman shall be permitted to have one support person of her choosing accompany her into the delivery room during the 15 16 birth of the child. The superintendent or sheriff or his or her designee 17 shall cause such woman to be subject to return to such institution or local correctional facility as soon after the birth of her child as the state of her health will permit as determined by the medical profes-19 sional responsible for the care of such woman. If such woman is confined 20 in a local correctional facility, the expense of such accommodation, 21 22 maintenance and medical care shall be paid by such woman or her relatives or from any available funds of the local correctional facility and 24 if not available from such sources, shall be a charge upon the county, city or town in which is located the court from which such inmate was 26 committed to such local correctional facility. If such woman is confined in any institution under the control of the department, the expense of 27 28 such accommodation, maintenance and medical care shall be paid by such woman or her relatives and if not available from such sources, such maintenance and medical care shall be paid by the state. In cases where payment of such accommodations, maintenance and medical care is assumed by the county, city or town from which such inmate was committed the payor shall make payment by issuing payment instrument in favor of the agency or individual that provided such accommodations and services, after certification has been made by the head of the institution to which the inmate was legally confined, that the charges for such accommodations, maintenance and medical care were necessary and are just, and that the institution has no available funds for such purpose.

- 2. A child so born may be returned with its mother to the correctional institution in which the mother is confined unless the chief medical officer of the correctional institution shall certify that the mother is physically unfit to care for the child, in which case the statement of the said medical officer shall be final. A child may remain in the correctional institution with its mother for such period as seems desirable for the welfare of such child, but not after it is one year of age, provided, however, if the mother is in a state reformatory and is to be paroled shortly after the child becomes one year of age, such child may remain at the state reformatory until its mother is paroled, but in no case after the child is eighteen months old. If the mother is an inmate at a state correctional facility, the department shall inform her of her ability to apply to any nursery program run by the department. The offiin charge of such institution may cause a child cared for therein with its mother to be removed from the institution at any time before is one year of age. He shall make provision for a child removed from the institution without its mother or a child born to a woman inmate who is not returned to the institution with its mother as hereinafter provided. He may, upon proof being furnished by the father other relatives of their ability to properly care for and maintain such child, give the child into the care and custody of such father or other relatives, who shall thereafter maintain the same at their own expense. If it shall appear that such father or other relatives are unable to properly care for and maintain such child, such officer shall place the child in the care of the commissioner of public welfare or other officer or board exercising in relation to children the power of a commissioner of public welfare of the county from which such inmate was committed as a charge upon such county. The officer in charge of the correctional institution shall send to such commissioner, officer or board a report of all information available in regard to the mother and the child. Such commissioner of public welfare or other officer or board shall care for or place out such child as provided by law in the case of a child becoming dependent upon the county.
- 4. The chief medical officer of each correctional facility housing female inmates or his or her designee shall inform any inmate known to be pregnant of her option of participating in pregnancy counseling services and of her right to abortion services.
- § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rules or regulations necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made by the department of corrections and community supervision in consultation with the department of health on or before such effective date.
