The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 204 of the education law is amended by adding two new subdivisions 5 and 6 to read as follows:

5. a. The regents shall hold at least two meetings in each calendar year in a city having a population of one million or more. Such meetings shall be held at a time to ensure parental attendance and participation.

b. (i) The regents shall announce the location, time and agenda of each meeting to be held in a city having a population of one million or more whenever such meeting is scheduled, but not later than three weeks before the meeting date to allow adequate time for public review. Provided, however, that if an agenda for any such meeting is not available, such agenda shall be announced as soon as it becomes available.

(ii) Such announcements shall be made available on the regents' public website and the New York city department of education website in the same manner as other public meetings are announced. The New York city department of education shall inform parent education advocates, teachers, principals and other school administrators of the location, time and agenda of such meetings held in a city having a population of one million or more. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "parent education advocates" shall include, but not be limited to parent associations, parent-teacher associations, school leadership teams, presidents councils, district leadership teams and citywide and communitywide education councils.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
