1 accrue against a county under section nine hundred thirty-six, nine
2 hundred seventy-six, or thirteen hundred thirty of the real property tax 3 law, shall be waived insofar as such liability is created by such taxing 4 jurisdiction's decision to defer or reduce taxes or special ad valorem 5 levies under this section.

6 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, appli-

8 thousand twenty, and ending on the date on which none of the 9 restrictions constituting New York On PAUSE, as defined by Executive 10 Order 202.31, continue to apply in the county where the real property is 11 located, and after a public hearing, the legislative body of any 12 village, town, city, or county may adopt a local law, or a school
13 district may adopt a resolution, providing that tax payments or special 14 ad valorem levies normally due to such taxing jurisdiction may be sepa-15 rated into as many installment payments as are necessary to provide 16 financial relief to taxpayers in such jurisdiction; provided however, 17 that such local law or resolution shall set dates certain for such 18 payments, and shall not impose any additional obligation on taxpayers 19 for not paying any portion of taxes earlier than would normally be due 20 under the taxing jurisdiction's normal schedule; and provided further, 21 that any liability which would normally accrue against a county under 22 section nine hundred thirty-six, nine hundred seventy-six, or thirteen 23 hundred thirty of the real property tax law, shall be waived insofar as 24 such liability is created by such taxing jurisdiction's decision to 25 defer taxes under this section.

26 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
