

STATE OF NEW YORK

8185

IN SENATE

April 13, 2020

Introduced by Sen. GAUGHRAN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to the nondisclosure of an individual reporting a violation of a local law or ordinance; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 1 of section 245.20 of the
2 criminal procedure law, as added by section 2 of part LLL of chapter 59
3 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

4 (c) The names and adequate contact information for all persons other
5 than law enforcement personnel whom the prosecutor knows to have
6 evidence or information relevant to any offense charged or to any poten-
7 tial defense thereto, including a designation by the prosecutor as to 8 which of those persons may be called as witnesses; provided, however,
9 nothing in this paragraph shall require the disclosure of the name or 10 contact information for any individual reporting a violation of a local 11 law or ordinance. Nothing in this paragraph shall require the disclosure
12 of physical addresses; provided, however, upon a motion and good cause
13 shown the court may direct the disclosure of a physical address. Infor-
14 mation under this subdivision relating to a confidential informant may 15 be withheld, and redacted from discovery materials, without need for a
16 motion pursuant to section 245.70 of this article; but the prosecution
17 shall notify the defendant in writing that such information has not been 18 disclosed, unless the court rules otherwise for good cause shown.

19 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be 20 deemed repealed December 31, 2022.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.
