3 to read as follows:

4 (d) Any person lawfully present may object to the refusal to cast or

6 voter of the election district, or in the case of a party primary duly 7 enrolled in such party, or to the casting or canvassing of any ballot on 8 the grounds that the voter is not a properly qualified voter of the 9 election district, or in the case of a party primary not duly enrolled 10 in such party, or otherwise not entitled to cast such ballot. When any 11 such objection is made, the central board of inspectors shall forthwith

16 ing the basis for the challenge and provide him or her with an opportu-17 nity to submit an affidavit or other sworn statement, as applicable, to 18 cure or address any such deficiency. The voter shall have a period of 19 three days from the date of receiving notification, but no later than 20 seven days from being mailed such notice to avail themselves of the 21 opportunity to cure or address any such deficiency. If the board cannot 22 agree as to the validity of the ballot it shall set the ballot aside, 23 unopened, for a period of three days at which time the ballot envelope 24 shall be opened and the vote counted unless otherwise directed by an
