STATE OF NEW YORK

______

8521--B

IN SENATE

June 6, 2020

Introduced by Sens. KENNEDY, ADDABBO, HARCKHAM, KAPLAN, KRUEGER, MARTINEZ, MAY, MAYER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the labor law and the civil service law, in relation to establishing a racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias training program for all state government and private employees in the state

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 201-h to 2 read as follows:

3

5

- § 201-h. Racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias training. 1. a. The department shall consult with the division of human rights to produce a model training program on racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias.
- 5 b. Such model racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias training prevention policy shall be interactive and include:
- 9 (i) a definition, explanation, and examples of racial equity, social
  10 justice, and implicit bias consistent with guidance issued by the
  11 department in consultation with the division of human rights;
- 12 (ii) examples of conduct that would be examples of violating equity,
  13 social justice, race, or implicit bias principles;
- (iii) information concerning best practices to avoid inequity, social injustice, racial, or implicit bias by a civil service appointee in actions connected to their professional work;
- 17 (iv) information regarding the impact of racial equity, social
  18 justice, and implicit bias may have on individuals across the state;
- 19 (v) examples of racial inequities and their impact on communities of 20 color;
- 21 (vi) information concerning employees' rights of redress and all
  22 available forums for adjudicating complaints; and

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD16597-05-0

S. 8521--B 2

1 (vii) any other information the department and the division of human 2 rights deems relevant and appropriate for such a course.

- c. The department shall include information in such model training program addressing conduct by supervisors that are contrary to any state policy on racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias, and shall include information as to how to report concerns regarding supervisor conduct.
- d. Every employer in the state, both public and private, shall utilize the model training program pursuant to this subdivision or establish a training program for employees that equals or exceeds the minimum standards of this section, and such training program has been approved by the department and the division of human rights.
- e. The model training program created pursuant to this section, and any equivalent program shall be reviewed and reapproved by the department and the division of human rights on a biennial basis.
- 2. Every person who is an employee in the state on the effective date of this section shall be required to complete the model racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias training program, produced pursuant to subdivision one of this section, or an equivalent approved by the department and the division of human rights, within one year of the effective date of this section. Each person who is employed after the effective date of this section, shall be required to complete the model racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias training program produced pursuant to subdivision one of this section, or an equivalent approved by the department and the division of human rights, within one month of being hired. An employee shall be required to take such training once while actively employed by an employer.
- 3. a. Every employer in the state shall provide his or her employees, in writing in English and in the language identified by each employee as the primary language of such employee, at the time of hiring and at any racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias prevention training provided pursuant to subdivision two of this section, a notice containing such employer's racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias prevention policy and the information presented at such employer's racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias prevention training program.
- b. The commissioner shall prepare templates of the model racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias prevention policy created and published pursuant to subdivision one of this section and the model racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias prevention training program produced pursuant to subdivision two of this section. The commissioner shall determine, in his or her discretion, which languages to provide in addition to English, based on the size of the New York state population that speaks each language and any other factor that the commissioner shall deem relevant. All such templates shall be made available to employers in the state in such manner as determined by the
- c. When an employee identifies as his or her primary language a language for which a template is not available from the commissioner, the employer shall comply with this subdivision by providing that employee an English-language notice.
- d. An employer shall not be penalized for errors or omissions in the non-English portions of any notice provided by the commissioner.
- 54 4. The department may promulgate any regulations necessary for the 55 purposes of carrying out the provisions of this section.

S. 8521--B 3

1

2

3 4

5

6

7

8

9

10 11

12

13 14

19 20

21

22

23

24 25

26

27

28

293031

32

33

34 35

36

37

38

39

40 41

5. As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

- a. "Equity" means fair and just opportunities and outcomes for all individuals.
- b. "Social justice" means every individual deserves to benefit from the same economic, political and social rights and opportunities, free from health disparities, regardless of race; socioeconomic status; age; sex, including on the basis of gender identity or orientation; religion; disability; or other characteristics.
- c. "Race" means a social construct that artificially divides people into distinct groups based on characteristics such as physical appearance, including color; ancestral heritage; cultural affiliation; cultural history; ethnic classification; and the social, economic and political needs of a society at a given period.
- 15 d. "Implicit bias" means the attitudes or stereotypes that affect our 16 understanding, actions, and decisions in an unconscious manner.
- 17  $\S$  2. The civil service law is amended by adding a new section 153 to 18 read as follows:
  - § 153. Racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias training. Every person who is a New York state government employee, including but not limited to managerial and confidential positions, on the effective date of this section shall be required to complete the model racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias training program, produced pursuant to section two hundred one-h of the labor law, or an equivalent approved by the department and the division of human rights, within one year of the effective date of this section. Each person who is appointed to or employed as a New York state government employee, including but not limited to managerial and confidential positions, after the effective date of this section, shall be required to complete the model racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias training program produced pursuant to section two hundred one-h of the labor law, or an equivalent approved by the department and the division of human rights, within one month of being hired as a New York state government employee. A New York state government employee shall be required to take such training once while actively employed as a New York state government employee. Any prior New York state government employee who leaves state government employment after the effective date of this section and later returns to any New York state government position shall be required to complete the model training program or an equivalent approved by the department and the division of human rights within one month of returning to New York state government employment.
- § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the department of labor, in consultation with the division of human rights, is authorized to create the racial equity, social justice, and implicit bias training program required to be created and published pursuant to section 201-h of the labor law as added by section one of this act.