IN SENATE

July 10, 2020

Introduced by Sens. ORTT, LANZA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to establishing an interest suspension and installment plan for rental properties during a declared emergency

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new 2 section 925-f to read as follows:

3 § 925-f. Interest suspension and installment plan for rental proper-4 ties during a declared emergency. 1. Notwithstanding any provision of 5 law to the contrary, a municipal corporation shall provide to property 6 owners the ability to pay their property taxes without interest or 7 penalty in twelve monthly installments from the tax lien day of the 8 covered period if they have been financially harmed due to a declared 9 emergency.

10 2. If a municipal corporation has received unrestricted federal 11 assistance in response to revenue shortfalls caused by the economic 12 impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic after July first, two thousand twenty, 13 that municipal corporation shall provide to property owners the ability 14 to have their property tax obligation be calculated by multiplying the 15 tax lien by a percentage equal to the amount of rent actually received 16 during the previous twelve months from occupied rental units in such 17 property relative to the total rent that should have been received in 18 rent during that time from occupied rental units in such property.

19 3. A municipal corporation shall provide a temporary status with the 20 full provisions of this section to a property owner who applies for 21 relief until it can be determined that they are eligible under the 22 parameters provided under this section. If a property owner is found to 23 not be eligible, full payment of the tax obligation shall be provided 24 within seven business days or otherwise be subjected to any interest or 25 penalty fees.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
