Introduced by Sen. STEWART-COUSINS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to aiding in the transition to adulthood for children with medical fragility living in pediatric nursing homes and other settings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section
2 2808-e to read as follows:

3 § 2808-e. Residential health care for children with medical fragility
4 in transition to young adults and young adults with medical fragility.
5 1. For purposes of this section:

6 (a) "children with medical fragility" shall mean children up to twen-
7 ty-one years of age who have a chronic debilitating condition or condi-
8 tions, are at risk of hospitalization, are technology-dependent for life 9 or health sustaining functions, require complex medication regimens or 10 medical interventions to maintain or to improve their health status, 11 and/or are in need of ongoing assessment or intervention to prevent 12 serious deterioration of their health status or medical complications 13 that place their life, health or development at risk.

14 (b) "young adults with medical fragility" shall mean individuals who 15 meet the definition of children with medical fragility, but for the fact 16 such individuals are aged twenty-one years or older.

17 (c) "pediatric residential health care facility" shall mean a free-18 standing facility or discrete unit within a facility authorized by the 19 commissioner to provide extensive nursing, medical, psychological and 20 counseling support services solely to children.

21 2. Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, any 22 child with medical fragility who has resided for at least thirty consec-23 utive days in a pediatric residential health care facility and who has 24 reached the age of twenty-one while a resident, may continue residing at 25 such pediatric facility and receiving such services from the facility,
26 provided that such young adult with medical fragility remains eligible 27 for nursing home care.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1     3. The commissioner is authorized to establish, with the written 2 approval of the public health and health planning council pursuant to 3 section twenty-eight hundred one-a of this article, one or more new 4 residential health care facilities for the provision of nursing, 5 medical, psychological and counseling support services appropriate to 6 the needs of nursing home-eligible young adults with medical fragility,
7 referred to herein below as a young adult facility, which such young 8 adult facility may be proposed by an established or proposed operator of 9 a pediatric residential health care facility or a discrete unit within 10 an established nursing home in good standing.

11     4. A young adult facility established pursuant to subdivision three of 12 this section may admit, from the community-at-large or upon referral 13 from an unrelated facility, young adults with medical fragility who 14 prior to reaching age twenty-one were children with medical fragility, 15 and who are eligible for nursing home care and in need of extensive 16 nursing, medical, psychological and counseling support services,
17 provided that the young adult facility, to promote continuity of care, 18 undertakes to provide priority admission to young adults with medical 19 fragility transitioning from the pediatric residential health care
20 facility operated by the entity that proposed the young adult facility 21 and ensure sufficient capacity to admit such young adults as they 22 approach or attain twenty-one years of age.

23     5. (a) For inpatient services provided to any young adults with 24 medical fragility eligible for medical assistance pursuant to title
25 eleven of article five of the social services law residing at any pedia-26 tric residential health care facility as authorized in subdivision two 27 of this section, the commissioner shall reimburse such pediatric facili-28 ty at the same rates of reimbursement approved by the commissioner for 29 children with medical fragility residing at said pediatric residential 30 health care facility pursuant to section twenty-eight hundred eight of 31 this article.

32     (b) For inpatient services provided to any young adults with medical 33 fragility eligible for medical assistance pursuant to title eleven of 34 article five of the social services law at any young adult facility as 35 authorized in subdivision three of this section, the commissioner shall 36 establish the operating component of rates of reimbursement utilizing 37 the same methodology used to establish the operating component of the 38 rates pursuant to section twenty-eight hundred eight of this article for 39 the free-standing pediatric residential health care facility described 40 in subdivision three of this section, subject to adjustment as appropri-41 ate to account for any discrete expenses associated with caring for 42 young adults with medical fragility, including addressing their distinct 43 needs as young adults for psychological and counseling support services.

44     6. Subject to the foregoing, all other laws and regulations that apply 45 to pediatric residential health care facilities, including exemptions 46 from laws and regulations otherwise applicable to other residential 47 health care facilities, shall also apply to any pediatric residential 48 health care facility authorized in subdivision two of this section to 49 provide inpatient services to young adults with medical fragility and to 50 any young adult facility established pursuant to subdivision three of 51 this section, and to any inpatient services provided by either such 52 facility.

53     § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
