AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to the creation of vacancies in a public office upon entering a guilty plea in federal court to a felony or crime or an offense which would constitute a felony under the laws of this state or involving a violation of an oath of office

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph e of subdivision 1 of section 30 of the public

3 to read as follows:

4 e. His or her conviction of a felony, [~~e~~] conviction of a crime
5 involving a violation of his or her oath of office or upon entering a 6 guilty plea in federal court to a felony or crime or an offense which 7 would constitute a felony under the laws of this state, or involving a 8 violation of his or her oath of office, provided, however, that a non-9 elected official may apply for reinstatement to the appointing authority 10 upon reversal or the vacating of such conviction where the conviction is 11 the sole basis for the vacancy. After receipt of such application, the 12 appointing authority shall afford such applicant a hearing to determine 13 whether reinstatement is warranted. The record of the hearing shall 14 include the final judgment of the court which reversed or vacated such 15 conviction and may also include the entire employment history of the 16 applicant and any other submissions which may form the basis of the 17 grant or denial of reinstatement notwithstanding the reversal or vacat-18 ing of such conviction. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, after 19 review of such record, the appointing authority may, in its discretion, 20 reappoint such non-elected official to his or her former office, or a 21 similar office if his or her former office is no longer available. In 22 the event of such reinstatement, the appointing authority may, in its 23 discretion, award salary or compensation in full or in part for the 24 period from the date such office became vacant to the date of rein-
25 statement or any part thereof;

26 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
