AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to eligibility for medical assistance

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 1-a of section 366 of the social services law, 2 as amended by chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 1-a. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the event that a 5 person who is an incarcerated individual of a state or local correction-6 al facility, as defined in section two of the correction law, or an 7 eligible juvenile inmate of a public institution, as defined in 8 subsection (nn) of section nineteen hundred two of the social security 9 act, was in receipt of medical assistance pursuant to this title imme-10 diately prior to being admitted to such facility or public institution, 11 or for juveniles determined eligible for such medical assistance while 12 an inmate of a public institution, such person shall remain eligible for 13 medical assistance while an incarcerated individual, except that no 14 medical assistance shall be furnished pursuant to this title for any 15 care, services, or supplies provided during such time as the person is 16 an incarcerated individual; provided, however, that nothing herein shall 17 be deemed as preventing the provision of medical assistance for inpa-18 tient hospital services furnished to an incarcerated individual at a 19 hospital outside of the premises of such correctional facility or public 20 institution, or pursuant to other federal authority authorizing the 21 provision of medical assistance to an incarcerated individual of a state 22 or local correctional facility during the thirty days prior to release, 23 to the extent that federal financial participation is available for the 24 costs of such services. Upon release from such facility or public insti-25 tution, such person shall continue to be eligible for receipt of medical 26 assistance furnished pursuant to this title until such time as the 27 person is determined to no longer be eligible for receipt of such

1 assistance. To the extent permitted by federal law, the time during 2 which such person is an incarcerated individual shall not be included in 3 any calculation of when the person must recertify his or her eligibility
4 for medical assistance in accordance with this article. The state may 5 seek federal authority to provide medical assistance for transitional 6 services including but not limited to medical, prescription, and care
7 coordination services for high needs incarcerated individuals in state 8 and local correctional facilities during the thirty days prior to 9 release.

10 § 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 2023.
