STATE OF NEW YORK

10259

IN ASSEMBLY

May 13, 2022

Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. K. Brown) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring certain entities when relying on statistics in planning, policy enforcement and reporting be based on the worst-case scenario

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 170-f to read as follows:

§ 170-f. Worst-case scenario planning, policy enforcement and reporting. Every department, bureau, board, commission, authority, or any other agency or instrumentality of the state shall, when relying on statistics in planning, policy enforcement and reporting, base such planning, policy enforcement and reporting on the worst-case scenario. For the purpose of this section, the term "base such planning, policy enforcement and reporting on the worst-case scenario" shall mean:

1. plans are created with the highest degree of safety such that any plan will remain viable if the worst-case scenario occurs.

2. policies are enforced to reduce the likelihood of a worst-case scenario while assuming that the worst-case scenario is occurring.

3. reports show the worst-case scenario statistics and findings if the statistics and findings are not absolute.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
