law,

(e) information on responses to crime, including reporting of crimes, submitting insurance claims and crime victim assistance programs. 3. The small business crime prevention services program shall, with the assistance of the small business advisory board and other appropriate state agencies, identify issues relating to crime affecting small businesses and assist the advisory board and the division in making recommendations for legislative, regulatory and programmatic actions to address such issues. § 2. Paragraph (n) of subdivision 1 of section 16-m of section 1 of chapter 174 of the laws of 1968, constituting the New York state urban development corporation act, as added by chapter 298 of the laws of 2012, is amended and a new paragraph (o) is added to read as follows: (n) Loans, loan guarantees, interest subsidies and grants to businesses, municipalities, industrial development agencies and local and regional economic development corporations, not-for-profit corporations, business improvement districts, regional marketing authorities and agricultural cooperatives organized pursuant to the cooperative corporations and other entities for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, expansion or rehabilitation of wholesale regional farmers' markets or food hubs that facilitate the sale and promotion of farm products grown or produced in New York state. For the purposes of this paragraph a wholesale regional farmers' market or food hub is a market, business or organization that actively manages the aggregation, distribution and marketing of source-identified food products primarily from local or regional producers to satisfy wholesale, retail and institutional demand for such products [+]; and (o) Loans, loan guarantees, interest subsidies and grants to small

27 28 businesses, municipalities, not-for-profit corporations or other organ-29 izations for the purpose of preventing crimes against small businesses 30 or on the premises or in the vicinity of small businesses, including 31 such activities as initiating or maintaining business watch programs, 32 installation of lighting, security equipment and other physical improve-33 ments to prevent or deter criminal activities, and the development and 34 dissemination of information to owners, operators and employees of small businesses on effective crime prevention strategies. Preference in 35 36 awarding assistance pursuant to this paragraph shall be given to 37 projects that will benefit distressed areas or other areas with a demon-38 strated need based on crime statistics, projects that provide a local or 39 private-sector match, and projects that demonstrate a likelihood of positive impact on crime prevention. The division of criminal justice 40 services shall provide assistance in the development of the program of 41 42 small business crime prevention assistance.

43 8 3. Section 837 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 44 subdivision 23 to read as follows:

45 23. Provide advice and assistance to the division for small business 46 in developing and operating a program of small business crime prevention 47 services pursuant to section one hundred thirty-nine-a of the economic development law, and provide advice and assistance to the urban develop-48 ment corporation in the development of the program of small business 49 50 crime prevention assistance pursuant to paragraph (o) of subdivision one of section sixteen-m of section one of chapter one hundred seventy-four 51 52 of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-eight.

§ 4. This act shall take effect on the first of April next succeeding 53 54 the date on which it shall have become a law; provided, however, that the department of economic development, the New York state urban devel-55 opment corporation and the division of criminal justice services shall 56
