47 duties as administrator pursuant to this article.

48 6. Such administrator shall be liable only in his or her official 49 capacity for injury to persons and property by reason of conditions of 50 the premises in a case where an owner would have been liable; he or she 51 shall not have any liability in his or her personal capacity. Appoint-

4 is appointed administrator, liability shall be determined in accordance 5 with subdivision six of this section.

6 8. The commissioner of the department of the city of New York charged 7 with the enforcement of the housing maintenance code of such city shall 8 promulgate rules and regulations regarding criteria for the selection of 11 department. If the dwelling is located outside the city of New York,

12 the official charged with management of the housing standards department 13 shall promulgate rules and regulations regarding criteria for the 14 selection of administrators to be appointed pursuant to this section and 15 may establish and maintain a list of organizations and persons approved
16 by such department. Unless the administrator is the [~~city of New York~~] 17 municipality or county, any person appointed as an administrator within 18 such city shall be selected from among the organizations and persons 19 approved as administrators pursuant to such list, any organizations or 20 individuals submitted to the court for consideration by the petitioning 21 tenants pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision, and the petition-

23 as the administrator.

24 (a) Where an article seven-A proceeding is initiated by tenants, the 25 petitioning tenants shall have the right to submit to the court a list 26 of three preferred organizations and/or individuals selected from the 27 approved list of administrators provided that, if the tenants find no 28 organization or individual on the list to be suitable, the tenants may 29 nominate organizations or individuals outside of the list, including 30 from among the petitioning tenants, along with a summary of each nomi-31 nee's experience and credentials, for consideration by the court.

32 (b) Where petitioning tenants have submitted preferred organizations 33 and/or individuals selected from the approved list of administrators, 34 the court must appoint an administrator from among the petitioning 35 tenants' preferred approved administrators absent good cause to the 36 contrary.

37 (c) Where petitioning tenants have not submitted preferred organiza-
38 tions or individuals or where the court declines to appoint an adminis-39 trator from among the petitioning tenants' preferred administrators or 40 nominees, priority of appointment shall be given to not-for-profit
41 corporations formed for the purpose of preserving or developing afforda-42 ble housing whenever there is no eligible for-profit organization or 43 individual that is clearly more competent.

44 9. (a) Such administrator shall, within thirty days of appointment, 45 file with the court a plan for the provision of essential services and 46 for the correction of such other hazardous conditions as may exist at 47 the premises, specifying dates by which such services shall be provided 48 and such conditions corrected. If such administrator cannot provide such 49 services and correct such conditions by the dates specified in the plan, 50 [~~he~~] they shall be required to file with the court an amendment to the 51 plan setting forth the reasons why such services and corrections could 52 not be provided by such date and specifying new dates for such services 53 and corrections. Such plan and any amendments to such plan shall be 54 provided to the tenants by first-class or registered or certified mail 55 [~~or~~] and by conspicuously posting in a common area of the building, and 56 to the owner of record by first-class or registered or certified mail.

(b) Where an organization has been appointed as the administrator, such administrator shall promptly delegate the responsibilities to a single individual and inform the court of such designation within thirty days. Such person shall remain accountable to the court as the administrator's representative until the administrator's discharge.

10. (a) Where a building for which an administrator has been appointed pursuant to this section is transferred to a new owner at any time following the appointment of such administrator, whether or not such building remains subject to such administrator, the housing standards department [~~charged with enforcement of the housing maintenance code of the city of New York~~] may enter into a regulatory agreement with such new owner. Such regulatory agreement may impose such terms and conditions upon the operation and repair of such building as such department may determine. Notwithstanding any general, special or local law to the contrary, such regulatory agreement may provide that, upon transfer of such building to the new owner, any outstanding liens filed with and recorded by the city pursuant to this section or pursuant to section three hundred nine of the multiple dwelling law shall immediately be reduced to zero, provided that such regulatory agreement shall require, in consideration for such reduction to zero, the provision of adequate, safe and sanitary housing accommodations for persons of low income for a period of not less than [~~thirty~~] ninety-nine years. Any regulatory agreement pursuant to this subdivision shall include a certification by the new owner of the real property that (i) the prior owner has no direct or indirect interest in such real property, and (ii) the prior owner has no direct or indirect interest in such new owner.

(b) On or about June thirtieth, two thousand [~~nine~~] twenty-two and for every three years thereafter for as long as the program continues to be in effect, the [~~city~~] municipality or county shall submit a report to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the senate and the minority leader of the assembly. Each report following the initial report shall describe the program activities carried out during the three prior calendar years pursuant to this subdivision.

11. (a) The court may only discharge an administrator if the owner makes a prima facie showing that the conditions and course of conduct which required the appointment of the article seven-A administrator have been cured and that the owner has a detailed plan for the continued maintenance and operation of the dwelling, the owner has paid in full or entered into a payment agreement to pay in full all outstanding real property tax liens claimed by [~~the city of New York~~] any municipality or county in which the dwelling is located, all outstanding emergency repair liens filed and recorded by [~~the city of New York~~] any municipality or county in which the dwelling is located, all outstanding charges and liens assessed in connection to the alternative enforcement program authorized by section 27-2153 of the administrative code of the city of New York, and outstanding liens filed and recorded by [~~the city~~] such municipality or county pursuant to this section. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to buildings transferred pursuant to subdivision ten of this section.

(b) A detailed plan for the continued maintenance of the operations of the dwelling shall include sufficient submissions for the court to evaluate the owner's willingness and ability to make repairs, including specifying the repairs they will undertake, an estimated budget, a timetable for doing so, identifying the source of funds for those expenditures, and balance sheets or income statements.

1 (c) In assessing an owner's fitness for the continued maintenance and 2 operation of the dwelling, the court shall consider the conditions of 3 other properties owned or managed by the owner and shall not discharge
4 the article seven-A administrator where it is found that the owner oper-5 ates a separate property or separate properties at a standard which is 6 contrary to public health and safety. The court may rely on the visually 7 displayed or the printed computerized violation files of the department 8 responsible for maintaining such files and all other computerized data 9 as shall be relevant to the enforcement of state and local laws for the 10 establishment and maintenance of housing standards.

11 12. (a) Where a judgment has been entered pursuant to section seven

21 this article.

22 (c) Notice of such authorization must be issued to all owners, mortga-

25 building.

26 (d) Any owner, mortgagor, lienor or lessee may challenge the authori-

29 pursuant to subdivision eleven of this section.

§ 12. Section 783 of the real property actions and proceedings law, as added by chapter 95 of the laws of 1989, is amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in any proceeding for the payment of rent commenced by an administrator appointed pursuant to this article, the provisions of section two hundred thirty-five-b of the real property law pertaining to the warranty of habitability shall not be a defense to such a proceeding for rent which accrues during the period of time that a judgment or an order pursuant to this article is in effect, unless the court determines that the conditions upon which such defense is based were caused by the failure of such administrator to perform his duties in a reasonable manner. The burden of showing performance of duties in a reasonable manner shall be made by the administrator in such summary proceeding.
