IN ASSEMBLY

January 7, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. DINOWITZ, GOTTFRIED, BENEDETTO, CYMBROWITZ, SEAWRIGHT, J. RIVERA, GLICK, BARRON, NIOU, FAHY, JOYNER, COOK, COLTON, McDONOUGH -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. ABBATE, DE LA ROSA -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the lien law, the general business law and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to liens against commercial towing companies for illegal and improper towing practices; to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to grounds for attachment; to amend the business corporation law, in relation to holding shareholders of non-publicly traded corporations personally liable for certain judgments; and to amend the limited liability company law, in relation to holding the ten members with the largest ownership interests in a company personally liable for certain judgments

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The lien law is amended by adding a new article 7-A to read as follows:

ARTICLE 7-A

LIEN ON COMMERCIAL TOWING COMPANIES FOR IMPROPER PRACTICES

Section 170. Lien for violations associated with illegal or improper practices relating to the towing of motor vehicles.

171. Enforcement of lien.

§ 170. Lien for violations associated with illegal or improper practices relating to the towing of motor vehicles. 1. A person shall have a lien against any interest in property of a commercial towing company arising out of any claim of illegal or improper practices relating to the towing of motor vehicles, as defined in section one hundred seven-b of the vehicle and traffic law, including by not limited to section 19-169.1 of the administrative code of the city of New York, for the agreed price of such towing or, if the towing was without the prior

1 consent or authorization of such motor vehicle owner, the amount charged 2 for the service, from the time of filing a notice of such lien as 3 prescribed in this chapter. In a city with a population of one million 4 or more, charges for towing and associated storage shall not exceed the 5 amounts set forth in section 20-509 of the administrative code of the 6 city of New York. A lien under this section may be had for any amount 7 over the limits set forth in such section. A lien under this article may 8 be had against an interest in real property and against an interest in 9 personal property that can be sufficiently described within the meaning 10 of section 9-108 of the uniform commercial code, except that a lien 11 under this article shall not extend to deposit accounts or goods as 12 those terms are defined in section 9-102 of the uniform commercial 13 code.

14 2. Notice of a lien under this section may be filed at any time not 15 later than three years following violation giving rise to the claim. A 16 notice of lien on personal property must be filed, together with a 17 financing statement, in the filing office as set forth in section 9-501 18 of the uniform commercial code.

19 3. Within five days before or thirty days after filing the notice of a 20 lien authorized pursuant to this article, the lienor shall serve a copy 21 of such notice upon the owner of the commercial towing company, if a 22 natural person, (a) by delivering the same to him or her personally, or 23 if the owner cannot be found, to his or her agent or attorney, or (b) by 24 leaving it as his or her last known place of residence or business, with 25 a person of suitable age and discretion, or (c) by registered or certi-26 fied mail addressed to his or her last known place of residence or busi-27 ness, or (d) if such person owns real property, by affixing a copy ther-28 eof conspicuously on such property, between the hours of nine o'clock in 29 the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon. The lienor also shall, 30 within thirty days after filing the notice of lien, affix a copy thereof 31 conspicuously on the real property identified in the notice of lien, 32 between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in 33 the afternoon. If the commercial towing company be a corporation, said 34 service shall be made (i) by delivering such copy to and leaving the 35 same with the president, vice-president, secretary or clerk to the 36 corporation, the cashier, treasurer or a director or managing agent 37 thereof, personally, within the state, or (ii) if such officer cannot be 38 found within the state, by affixing a copy thereof conspicuously on such 39 property between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and four 40 o'clock in the afternoon, or (iii) by registered or certified mail 41 addressed to its last known place of business, or (iv) by delivery to 42 the secretary of the department of state in the same manner as required 43 by subparagraph one of paragraph (b) of section three hundred six of the 44 business corporation law. Failure to file proof of such a service with 45 the county clerk within thirty-five days after the notice of lien is 46 filed shall terminate the notice as a lien. Until service of the notice 47 has been made, as above provided, an owner, without knowledge of the 48 lien, shall be protected in payment made in good faith to any other 49 person claiming a lien.

50 4. (a) No lien on real property under this section shall be a lien for 51 a longer period than one year after the notice of lien has been filed, 52 unless an extension to such lien is filed with the county clerk of the 53 county in which the notice of lien is filed within one year from the 54 filing of the original notice of lien, continuing such lien and such 55 lien shall be redocketed as of the date of filing such extension. Such 56 extension shall contain the names of the lienor and the owner of the

1 real property against whose interest therein such lien is claimed, a 2 brief description of the property affected by such lien, the amount of 3 such lien, and the date of filing the notice of lien. No lien shall be 4 continued by such extension for more than one year from the filing ther-5 eof. In the event an action is not commenced to obtain judgment on the 6 claim or to foreclose the lien within such extended period, such lien 7 shall be extinguished unless an order be granted by a court of record or 8 a judge or justice thereof, continuing such lien, and such lien shall 9 be redocketed as of the date of granting such order and a statement made 10 that such lien is continued by virtue of such order.

11 (b) No lien on personal property under this section shall be a lien 12 for a longer period than one year after the financing statement has been 13 recorded, unless an extension to such lien, is filed with the filing 14 office in which the financing statement is required to be filed pursuant 15 to section 9-501 of the uniform commercial code within one year from the 16 filing of the original financing statement, continuing such lien. Such 17 extension shall contain the names of the lienor and the owner of the 18 property against whose interest therein such lien is claimed, a brief 19 description of the prior financing statement to be extended, and the 20 date of filing the prior financing statement. No lien shall be continued 21 by such extension for more than one year from the filing thereof. In the 22 event an action is not commenced to obtain judgement on the claim or to 23 foreclose the lien within such extended period, such lien shall be 24 extinguished unless an order be granted by a court of record or a judge 25 or justice thereof, continuing such lien, and such lien shall be refiled 26 as of the date of granting such order and a statement made that such 27 lien is continued by virtue of such order.

28 (c) If a lienor is made a party defendant in an action to enforce 29 another lien, and the plaintiff or such defendant has filed a notice of 30 the pendency of the action within the time prescribed in this section, 31 the lien of such defendant is thereby continued. Such action shall be 32 deemed an action to enforce the lien of such defendant lienor. The fail-33 ure to file a notice of pendency of action shall not abate the action as 34 to any person liable for the payment of the debt specified in the notice 35 of lien, and the action may be prosecuted to judgment against such 36 person. The provisions of this section in regard to continuing liens 37 shall apply to liens discharged by deposit or by order on the filing of 38 an undertaking. Where a lien is discharged by deposit or by order, a 39 notice of pendency of action shall not be filed.

40 (d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a lienor commences a foreclosure 41 action or an action to obtain a judgment on the claim within one year 42 from the filing of the notice of lien on real property or the recording 43 of the financing statement creating lien on personal property, the lien 44 shall be extended during the pendency of the action and for one hundred 45 twenty days following the entry of final judgment in such action, unless 46 the action results in a final judgment or administrative order in the 47 lienor's favor on the claims and the lienor commences a foreclosure 48 action, in which instance the lien shall be valid during the pendency of 49 the foreclosure action. If a lien is extended due to the pendency of a 50 foreclosure action or an action to obtain a judgment on the claim, the 51 lienor shall file a notice of such pendency and extension with the coun-52 ty clerk of the county in which the notice of lien is filed, containing 53 the names of the parties to the action, the object of the action, a 54 brief description of the property affected thereby, and the time of 55 filing the notice of lien, or in the case of a lien on personal property

1 shall file such notice with the office authorized to accept financing 2 statements pursuant to section 9-501 of the uniform commercial code.

3 (e) A lien, the duration of which has been extended by the filing of a 4 notice of the pendency of an action as above provided, shall neverthe-5 less terminate as a lien after such notice has been canceled as provided 6 in section sixty-five hundred fourteen of the civil practice law and 7 rules or has ceased to be effective as constructive notice as provided 8 in section sixty-five hundred thirteen of the civil practice law and 9 rules.

10 § 171. Enforcement of lien. 1. A lien on real property authorized 11 under this article may be enforced against such property, and against a 12 person liable for the judgment upon which the lien is founded, by an 13 action, by the lienor, his assignee or legal representative, in the 14 supreme court or in a county court otherwise having jurisdiction, 15 regardless of the amount of such judgment, or in a court which has 16 jurisdiction in an action founded on a contract for a sum of money 17 equivalent to the amount of such judgment, in the same manner as 18 prescribed in article three of this chapter.

19 2. A lien on personal property specified in this article may imme-20 diately be enforced against the property through a foreclosure as 21 prescribed in article nine of the uniform commercial code, or upon judg-22 ment obtained by the owner of the motor vehicle, or the attorney general 23 of the state of New York, and may be enforced in any manner available to 24 the judgment creditor pursuant to article nine of the uniform commercial 25 code or other applicable laws.

26 3. A lien, where notice has been filed on real property or a bond 27 given to discharge the same, may be vacated and cancelled or a deposit 28 made to discharge a lien pursuant to section twenty of this chapter may 29 be returned, by an order of a court of record. Before such order shall 30 be granted, a notice shall be served upon the lienor, either personally 31 or by leaving it at his last known place of residence or attorney's 32 place of business, with a person of suitable age, with directions to 33 deliver it to the lienor. Such notice shall require the lienor to 34 commence an action to enforce the lien, or to commence an action to 35 obtain judgment on the claim upon which the lien was established, within 36 a time specified in the notice, not less than ninety days from the time 37 of service, or show cause at a special term of a court of record, or at 38 a county court, in a county in which the property is situated, at a time 39 and place specified therein, why the notice of lien filed or the bond 40 given should not be vacated and cancelled, or the deposit returned, as 41 the case may be. Proof of such service and that the lienor has not 42 commenced the action to foreclose such lien or an action to obtain judg-43 ment on the claim upon which the lien was established, as directed in 44 the notice, shall be made by affidavit, at the time of applying for such 45 order.

46 § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 399-xx of the general business law, as 47 added by chapter 690 of the laws of 2004, is amended to read as follows:

48 2. Requirements. A commercial tower who responds to a call for assist-49 ance from an owner or operator of a vehicle that is inoperable or cannot 50 be safely operated or who offers to transport, repair, or render safely 51 operable such a vehicle shall, in compliance with any reasonable request 52 of an owner or operator of such vehicle, repair the vehicle or transport 53 the vehicle and its occupants to a reasonably safe location where 54 repairs can be made. The commercial tower shall not be required to 55 transport all vehicle occupants if the number of occupants exceeds the 56 number of passengers that can be safely transported. The owner or operator of the vehicle shall be liable to the commercial tower for the cost of towing and repair services provided. A written invoice stating the cost of the towing and/or services, signed by both the commercial tower and the owner or authorized user of the motor vehicle, shall be provided prior to any towing or services being performed. The commercial tower shall accept cash and all other forms of payment that such commercial tower accepts in the ordinary course of business, including credit and debit cards as those terms are defined in section five hundred eleven of this chapter as payment for all or part of the charges for towing and repair services accepted and provided. The commercial tower may require such proof of identification from persons making payments in forms other than cash as the commercial tower requires for such payments in the ordinary course of business. If the owner or operator of a vehicle declines services of the commercial tower or cannot or will not provide payment and identification for towing or repair services, a commercial tower shall notify law enforcement about the location and identification of the vehicle and its occupants. The provisions of this section do not apply to a vehicle which is lawfully parked at the home of the vehicle's owner or operator.

§ 3. Section 20-509 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new subdivision e to read as follows:

e. A written invoice stating the cost of the towing and/or repair services, signed by both the commercial tower and the owner or authorized user of the motor vehicle, shall be provided prior to any towing or repair services being performed, except where the towing was without the prior consent or authorization of such motor vehicle owner. Upon the release of a towed motor vehicle the owner shall receive an invoice stating the amount charged and the amount paid.

§ 4. Subdivision 5 of section 6201 of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 860 of the laws of 1977 and as renumbered by chapter 618 of the laws of 1992, is amended and a new subdivision 6 is added to read as follows:

5. the cause of action is based on a judgment, decree or order of a court of the United States or of any other court which is entitled to full faith and credit in this state, or on a judgment which qualifies for recognition under the provisions of article 53[+] of this chapter;
or

6. the cause of action is based on claims of illegal or improper practices relating to the towing of motor vehicles, including but not limited to violations of section 19-169.1 of the administrative code of the city of New York.

§ 5. The business corporation law is amended by adding a new section 631 to read as follows:

§ 631. Liability of shareholders of commercial towing companies for claims of illegal or improper towing practices.

(a) The ten largest shareholders, as determined by the fair value of their beneficial interest in every domestic corporation or of any foreign corporation, no shares of which are listed on a national securities exchange or regularly quoted in an over-the-counter market by one or more members of a national or an affiliated securities association, shall jointly and severally be personally liable for all claims due and owing to any person as a result of an action to recover damages for violations associated with illegal or improper practices relating to the towing of motor vehicles, including but not limited to violations of section 19-169.1 of the administrative code of the city of New York.

1 (b) A shareholder who has paid more than his or her pro rata share 2 under this section shall be entitled to contribution pro rata from the 3 other shareholders liable under this section with respect to the excess 4 so paid, over and above his or her pro rata share, and may sue them 5 jointly or severally or any number of them to recover the amount due 6 from them. Such recovery may be had in a separate action. As used in 7 this paragraph, "pro rata" means in proportion to beneficial share 8 interest. Before a shareholder may claim contribution from other share-9 holders under this paragraph, he or she shall give them notice in writ-10 ing that he or she intends to hold them so liable to him or her. Such 11 notice shall be given by him or her within twenty days after the date 12 that notice was given under paragraph (a) of this section.

13 § 6. Section 609 of the limited liability company law is amended by 14 adding a new subdivision (e) to read as follows:

15 (e) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b) of this 16 section, the ten members with the largest percentage ownership interest 17 of every limited liability company, shall jointly and severally be 18 personally liable for all claims due and owing to any person as a result 19 of an action to recover damages for violations associated with illegal 20 or improper practices relating to the towing of motor vehicles, includ-21 ing but not limited to violations of section 19-169.1 of the administra-
22 tive code of the city of New York.

23 § 7. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 24 have become a law.
