Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. L. Rosenthal) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Housing

AN ACT to amend chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, in relation to providing for the determination of legal regulated base date rent for certain purposes

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The opening paragraph of paragraph 1 of subdivision a of 2 section 12 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, constituting 3 the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, as amended 4 by section 1 of part F chapter 36 of the laws of 2019, is amended to 5 read as follows:

6 Subject to the conditions and limitations of this paragraph, any owner 7 of housing accommodations in a city having a population of less than one 8 million or a town or village as to which an emergency has been declared 9 pursuant to section three, who, upon complaint of a tenant or of the 10 state division of housing and community renewal, is found by the state 11 division of housing and community renewal, after a reasonable opportunity 12 to be heard, to have collected an overcharge above the rent authorized 13 for a housing accommodation subject to this act shall be liable to 14 the tenant for a penalty equal to three times the amount of such over-15 charge. If the owner establishes by a preponderance of the evidence 16 that the overcharge was neither willful nor attributable to his negli-
17 gence, the state division of housing and community renewal shall estab-18 lish the penalty as the amount of the overcharge plus interest at the 19 rate of interest payable on a judgment pursuant to section five thousand 20 four of the civil practice law and rules. After a complaint of rent 21 overcharge has been filed and served on an owner, the voluntary adjust-22 ment of the rent and/or the voluntary tender of a refund of rent over-23 charges shall not be considered by the division of housing and community 24 renewal or a court of competent jurisdiction as evidence that the over-25 charge was not willful. (i) Except as to complaints filed pursuant to 26 clause (ii) of this paragraph, the legal regulated rent for purposes of 1 determining an overcharge, shall be deemed to be the rent indicated in 2 the most recent reliable annual registration statement for a rent stabi-3 lized tenant filed and served upon the tenant six or more years prior to 4 the most recent registration statement, (or, if more recently filed, the 5 initial registration statement) plus in each case any subsequent lawful 6 increases and adjustments. The division of housing and community

7 renewal or a court of competent jurisdiction, in investigating 8 complaints of overcharge and in determining legal regulated rent, shall 9 consider all available rent history which is reasonably necessary to 10 make such determinations. If there is an overcharge, the legal regulated 11 base date rent at the four-year lookback shall be determined by either 12 the survey sampling method or the default method if there is fraud. (ii) 13 As to complaints filed within ninety days of the initial registration of 14 a housing accommodation, the legal regulated rent for purposes of deter-
15 mining an overcharge shall be deemed to be the rent charged on the date
16 six years prior to the date of the initial registration of the housing 17 accommodation (or, if the housing accommodation was subject to this act 18 for less than six years, the initial legal regulated rent) plus in each 19 case, any lawful increases and adjustments. Where the rent charged on 20 the date six years prior to the date of the initial registration of the 21 accommodation cannot be established, such rent shall be established by 22 the division.
23 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
