Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. L. Rosenthal) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to providing student onboarding and ongoing education on reproductive health services

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new article 129-C
2 to read as follows:

ARTICLE 129-C

4 STUDENT ONBOARDING AND ONGOING EDUCATION ON REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH SERVICES
5 Section 6450. Student onboarding and ongoing education on reproductive 6 health services.

7 § 6450. Student onboarding and ongoing education on reproductive
8 health services. 1. As used in this article, the following terms have 9 the following meanings:

10 a. "Reproductive health services" shall include:

11 (i) abortion pursuant to section twenty-five hundred ninety-nine-bb of 12 the public health law;

13 (ii) emergency contraception as defined in section twenty-eight 14 hundred five-p of the public health law; and

15 (iii) medical, surgical, counseling or referral services relating to 16 the human reproductive system, including services relating to pregnancy
17 or the termination of a pregnancy.

18 b. "Code of conduct" shall mean the written policies adopted by an 19 institution governing student behavior, rights, and responsibilities
20 while such student is matriculated in the institution.

21 c. "Institution" shall mean any college or university chartered by the 22 regents or incorporated by special act of the legislature that maintains 23 a campus in New York.

24 2. Every institution shall adopt a comprehensive student onboarding
25 and ongoing education campaign to educate members of the institution's
26 community on the right to and availability of reproductive health
27 services in the state.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD16079-03-2

1 3. Included in this campaign shall be a requirement that all new 2 first-year and transfer students shall, during the course of their 3 onboarding to their respective institution, receive information and 4 resources on the following, using a method and manner appropriate to the 5 institutional culture of each institution:

6 a. Where the nearest reproductive health services are located;

7 b. What resources are available to a student seeking reproductive 8 health services including but not limited to financial assistance and 9 mental health services; and

10 c. Reproductive health resources available to a student through the 11 institution, if applicable.

12 4. Every institution shall provide such reproductive health resources 13 to all new students, whether first-year or transfer, undergraduate,
14 graduate, or professional.

15 5. Every institution shall require that each student leader and offi-
16 cer of student organizations recognized by or registered with the insti-
17 tution, as well as those seeking recognition by the institution,
18 complete training on reproductive health services available to students
19 at the institution.

20 6. Every institution shall adopt written rules and regulations imple-
21 menting this article by amending its code of conduct or other comparable
22 policies which shall be distributed annually to students, made available 23 on each institution's website, posted in campus residence halls and 24 campus centers where applicable, and shall include links to relevant
25 reproductive health service resources provided pursuant to subdivision
26 two of this section.

27 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of July next succeeding 28 the date on which it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the 29 addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary
30 for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized 31 to be made and completed on or before such effective date.
