AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to codifying existing guidance on the application of sales and use tax

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph 3 of subdivision (b) of section 1101 of the tax 2 law, as amended by section 21 of part Y of chapter 63 of the laws of 3 2000, is amended to read as follows:

(3) Receipt. (i) The amount of the sale price of any property and the charge for any service taxable under this article, including gas and gas service and electricity and electric service of whatever nature, valued in money, whether received in money or otherwise, including any amount for which credit is allowed by the vendor to the purchaser, without any deduction for expenses or early payment discounts and also including any 10 charges by the vendor to the purchaser for shipping or delivery, and, 11 with respect to gas and gas service and electricity and electric service, any charges by the vendor for transportation, transmission or 13 distribution, regardless of whether such charges are separately stated 14 in the written contract, if any, or on the bill rendered to such 15 purchaser and regardless of whether such shipping or delivery or transportation, transmission, or distribution is provided by such vendor or a 16 third party, but excluding any credit for tangible personal property 17 accepted in part payment and intended for resale. For special rules 18 19 governing computation of receipts, see section eleven hundred eleven of 20 this article.

21 (ii) Receipt shall include consideration received by the vendor from 22 third parties if:
