

STATE OF NEW YORK

2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 7, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. QUART, NOLAN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, the insurance law, the penal law, the uniform district court act, and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to redefining reckless driving as dangerous driving

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative intent. The Legislature recognizes the height-2 ened responsibility of operating a multi-ton car or truck and that such 3 motor vehicle is a dangerous instrument under state law that, in an 4 instant, can cause lethal physical harm. For example, when operating a 5 car at 30 miles per hour the average risk of a pedestrian dying upon 6 impact with such car is 40%, at 40 miles per hour the risk of death is 7 80%, and at speeds greater than 50 miles per hour the likelihood of 8 death is near certain at nearly 100%.

9 When deaths resulting from alcohol-impaired driving were reduced from 10 approximately 30,000 annually in the early 1980s across the United 11 States to approximately 10,000 annually in recent years, that remarkable 12 reduction was achieved in part by the certainty experienced by drivers 13 that they would suffer legal consequences for driving impaired and risk-14 ing the lives of themselves and others, resulting from changes in laws 15 prohibiting impaired driving. However, that certainty does not exist for 16 other types of dangerous driving. A 2016 survey by the National Safety 17 Council showed that "[a]lthough 83% of drivers surveyed believe driving 18 is a safety concern, a startling number say they are comfortable speed-19 ing (64%) [~~and~~] texting either manually or through voice controls 20 (47%)," whereas far fewer (10%) say they are comfortable driving after 21 they feel they've had too much alcohol. This shows that, while drunk 22 driving has become socially unacceptable, most other forms of dangerous
23 driving have not, and New Yorkers are paying the price with lives lost

1 and bodies and families shattered. Moreover, the New York City Depart-
2 ment of Transportation estimated in 2010 that the annual cost of all
3 traffic crashes just in New York City to be $4.29 billion annually, 4 about 1% of the Gross City Product.

5 As evidenced by our country's experience combatting drunk driving, 6 research has shown that perceived certainty of legal consequences is 7 necessary to deter or prevent harmful acts, including dangerous driving.
8 The original statutory language of the New York vehicle and traffic law 9 section 1212 (VTL 1212), in and of itself, is favorable to a reasonable 10 standard for reckless or dangerous driving, specifying that driving in a 11 manner that "unreasonably interferes with" or "unreasonably endangers 12 ~~[others]~~" constitutes a violation of that section and is an unclassified 13 misdemeanor. However, that reasonableness standard has subsequently been 14 heightened, to an extreme level by New York judicial interpretations 15 that require factors such as a finding of seriously blameworthy conduct 16 (People v. Boutin and People v. Cabrera), an "affirmative act" by the 17 driver (People v. Cabrera), a "gross deviation" from the standard of 18 conduct a reasonable person would observe, and additional "aggravating 19 factors" on behalf of the driver -- all judicial interpretations and 20 elevated mens rea requirements not required by the original statutory 21 text for vehicle and traffic law section 1212 Reckless Driving. This 22 judicially imposed higher mens rea requirement fails to recognize the 23 awesome responsibility that operating a multi-ton car or truck is and as 24 a consequence, evidenced in part by the staggering injuries and deaths
25 in our state, the statute has failed to achieve what it intended. Cars 26 and trucks are dangerous instruments under state law and should be 27 recognized as such when applying vehicle and traffic law section 1212.
28 For these reasons the Legislature is disapproving of the holdings with 29 regards to a motor vehicle operator's culpability and state of mind in 30 People v. Boutin, 75 N.Y.2d 692 (N.Y. 1990); People v. Grogan, 260 N.Y.
31 138, 183 N.E. 273 (N.Y. 1932); People v. Cabrera, 10 N.Y.3d 370 (N.Y.
32 2008) and People v. Goldblatt, 98 A.D.3d 817 N.Y.S.2d 210 (3d Dept.
33 2012); and this legislation would correct the misapplication of vehicle 34 and traffic law section 1212 in these rulings and restore the statute to 35 its original intent, namely to deter and prevent dangerous operation of 36 heavy motor vehicles that pose a daily threat to public health and risk 37 the lives of New Yorkers throughout our state.

38 § 2. Section 1212 of the vehicle and traffic law, as added by chapter 39 47 of the laws of 1988, is amended to read as follows:

40 § 1212. ~~[Reckless]~~ Dangerous driving. ~~[Reckless]~~ Dangerous driving 41 shall mean ~~[driving]~~ operating or using any motor vehicle, motorcycle or 42 any other vehicle capable only of being propelled by any power other 43 than muscular power or any appliance or accessory thereof in a manner 44 which unreasonably interferes with the free and ~~[proper]~~ safe use of the 45 public highway, ~~[or]~~ unreasonably endangers users of the public highway, 46 or fails to exercise ordinary due care. ~~[Reckless]~~ Dangerous driving is 47 prohibited. Every person violating this provision shall be guilty of a 48 misdemeanor. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter or the 49 penal law, every person violating this section and who causes physical 50 injury to another person shall be found to have acted with criminal 51 negligence under section 15.05 of the penal law and shall be guilty of a 52 class A misdemeanor. A violation of this section does not require a 53 finding of a minimum number of violations of law or a finding that a 54 person was aware of, had perceived, or had created the risk of harm to 55 another person.

1 § 3. Section 509-e of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by chap-
2 ter 853 of the laws of 1975, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 509-e. Annual review of driving record. Each motor carrier shall, at 4 least once every twelve months, review the driving record of each bus 5 driver it employs to determine whether that driver meets minimum 6 requirements for safe driving and is qualified to drive a bus pursuant 7 to section five hundred nine-b of this article. In reviewing a driving 8 record, the motor carrier must consider any evidence that the bus driver 9 has violated applicable provisions of the vehicle and traffic law. The 10 motor carrier must also consider the driver's accident record and any 11 evidence that the driver has violated laws governing the operation of 12 motor vehicles, such as speeding, [~~reckless~~] dangerous driving, and 13 operating while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, that indicate 14 that the driver has exhibited a disregard for the safety of the public.
15 Such information shall be recorded in the employer's record.

16 § 4. Subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 4 of section
17 510-a of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by section 1 of part C 18 of chapter 58 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

23 renumbered by chapter 298 of the laws of 1991, is amended to read as 24 follows:

25 (10) [~~Reckless~~] Dangerous driving; and 26 § 6. Subdivision 2 of section 530 of the vehicle and traffic law, as 27 separately amended by chapters 571 and 732 of the laws of 2006, is 28 amended to read as follows:

29 (2) Such license or privilege shall not be issued to a person who,
30 within the four year period immediately preceding the date of applica-31 tion, has been convicted within or without the state of homicide or 32 assault arising out of the operation of a motor vehicle, of criminally 33 negligent homicide or criminal negligence in the operation of a motor 34 vehicle resulting in death, or has been convicted within the state of a 35 violation of subdivision two of section six hundred of this chapter or 36 of [~~reckless~~] dangerous driving. Such license or privilege shall not be 37 issued to a person whose license or privilege, at the time of applica-
38 tion, is revoked pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (x) or (xi) 39 of paragraph a of subdivision two of section five hundred ten of this 40 chapter. Such license or privilege shall not be issued to a person whose 41 license or privilege is suspended or revoked because of a conviction of 42 a violation of subdivision one, two, two-a, three, four or four-a of 43 section eleven hundred ninety-two of this chapter or a similar offense 44 in another jurisdiction, or whose license or privilege is revoked by the 45 commissioner for refusal to submit to a chemical test pursuant to subdi-46 vision two of section eleven hundred ninety-four of this chapter. Such

51 ty-two of this chapter or a similar alcohol-related offense in another 52 jurisdiction, or whose license or privilege has been revoked by the 53 commissioner for refusal to submit to a chemical test pursuant to subdi-54 vision two of section eleven hundred ninety-four of this chapter, except 55 that such a license or privilege may be issued to such a person if,
56 after such conviction or revocation, such person successfully completed

1 an alcohol and drug rehabilitation program established pursuant to arti-2 cle thirty-one of this chapter in conjunction with such conviction or 3 revocation. Provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed as 4 prohibiting an operator from being issued a limited or conditional
5 license or privilege pursuant to any alcohol rehabilitation program
6 established pursuant to this chapter.

28 commission of such offense shall be excluded and such three year period 29 shall be extended by a period or periods equal to the time spent incar-
