Introduced by M. of A. BUTTENSCHON, GUNTHER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Mental Health

AN ACT to amend the mental hygiene law, in relation to the establishment of the independent intellectual and developmental disability ombudsman program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The mental hygiene law is amended by adding a new section
2 33.29 to read as follows:

3 § 33.29 Independent intellectual and developmental disability ombudsman
4 program.

5 (a) There is hereby established the office of the independent intel-6 lectual and developmental disability ombudsman program that will be 7 operated or selected by the office for people with developmental disa-8 bilities for the purpose of assisting individuals with an intellectual 9 or developmental disability to ensure that they receive coverage from 10 managed care organizations that is appropriate in meeting their individ-11 ual service needs.

12 (b) Such ombudsman will identify, investigate, refer and resolve 13 complaints that are made by, or on behalf of, consumers relative to 14 coverage under a managed care organization and access to initial and 15 continuing intellectual and developmental disability services and 16 supports; and accept, investigate, refer and help to resolve complaints 17 that are made by or on behalf of consumers or by providers relative to 18 network adequacy for access to intellectual and developmental disability 19 services and supports.

20 (c) Notwithstanding sections one hundred twelve and one hundred 21 sixty-three of the state finance law and section one hundred forty-two 22 of the economic development law, or any other inconsistent provision of 23 law, funds available for expenditure pursuant to this section for the 24 establishment of an ombudsman program for intellectual and developmental
