- § 601. Enforcement of violations. 1. Unless otherwise provided by law, no state agency shall:
- (a) impose or suggest any enforcement quota with respect to officers or employees directly involved in enforcement activities or their imme-10 diate supervisors;
- 11 (b) use records of quantitative enforcement results as the primary 12 criterion to evaluate such officers, employees or supervisors;
- 13 (c) reward any officer, employee or supervisor for meeting or exceed-14 ing an enforcement quota; or
- 15 (d) transfer or in any other manner penalize or threaten, expressly or 16 impliedly, any such officer, employee or supervisor as to his or her employment in a manner, including, but not limited to, a reassignment, a 17 18 scheduling change, an adverse evaluation, a constructive dismissal, the 19 denial of a promotion, or the denial of overtime, based in whole or in
- 21 2. Nothing in this section shall preclude an agency from making and 22 communicating forecasts of enforcement results for planning purposes, and accumulating, tabulating, publishing and using enforcement results for management and control of agency resources so long as enforcement 25 results or tabulations are not used as the primary criterion to evaluate part on such person's failure to meet an enforcement quota.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

officer or employee described in subdivision one of this section or to impose or suggest enforcement quotas. In the discharge of a manager's 3 responsibilities, but subject to the provisions of subdivision one of this section, a manager may raise questions with an officer or employee about the number of cases processed or inspections performed by the officer or employee, the amount of time the officer or employee has been spending on individual enforcement activities, or the kind of results the officer or employee has been obtaining, and may use similar stand-9 ards in evaluating the performance of a supervisor of such officers or 10 employees.

3. As used in this section, "enforcement quota" shall mean a quantitative standard for evaluating or measuring enforcement activities, including but not limited to (a) a specific number of enforcement cases in which citations for violations are made within a specified period of time; (b) the total number of violations found within a specified period; (c) the total dollar amount of penalties associated with enforcement activities within a specified period of time; or (d) any comparison of the enforcement activities of an officer, employee or supervisor with other officers, employees or supervisors, with an average of such activ-20 ities or with other quantitative standards, when used to penalize or 21 reward officers, employees or supervisors for attaining or failing to 22 attain a specific number of citations for violations and/or penalties within a specified period of time.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
