Introduced by M. of A. WOERNER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law and the criminal procedure law, in relation to establishing the crime of doxing a police officer or a peace officer

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 240.33 to read as follows:

§ 240.33 Doxing a police officer or a peace officer.

A person is guilty of doxing a police officer or a peace officer when he or she knowingly makes restricted personal information about a police officer or peace officer, or a member of the immediate family of such officer, publicly available:

1. With the intent to threaten, intimidate, or incite the commission of a crime of violence against the police officer or peace officer, or a member of the immediate family of such officer; or

2. With the intent and knowledge that the restricted personal information will be used to threaten, intimidate, or facilitate the commission of a crime of violence against the police officer or peace officer, or a member of the immediate family of such officer.

Under this section, police officer and peace officer are as defined under section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law.
