AN ACT to amend the judiciary law and the civil service law, in relation to judicial review of punishment for certain contempt citations

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 751 of the judi-2 ciary law, as amended by chapter 254 of the laws of 1983, is amended to 3 read as follows:

3 (a) Where an employee organization, as defined in section two hundred one of the civil service law, wilfully disobeys a lawful mandate of a court of record, or wilfully offers resistance to such lawful mandate, in a case involving or growing out of a strike in violation of subdivision one of section two hundred ten of the civil service law, the punishment for each day that such contempt persists may be by a fine 10 fixed in the discretion of the court. In the case of a government exempt 11 from certain provisions of article fourteen of the civil service law, 12 pursuant to section two hundred twelve of such law, the court may, as an 13 additional punishment for such contempt, order forfeiture of the rights 14 granted pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of subdivision one, 15 and subdivision three of section two hundred eight of such law, for such specified period of time[, as the court shall determine or, in the discretion of the court, for an indefinite period of time ] not to exceed 17 thirty days, subject to restoration upon application, with notice to all 18 interested parties, supported by proof of good faith compliance with the 19 20 requirements of subdivision one of section two hundred ten of the civil service law since the date of such violation, such proof to include, for 22 example, the successful negotiation, without a violation of subdivision 23 one of section two hundred ten of the civil service law, of a contract covering the employees in the unit affected by such violation; provided, 25 however, that where a fine imposed pursuant to this subdivision remains
