IN ASSEMBLY

Introduced by M. of A. CARROLL, CAHILL, L. ROSENTHAL, SIMON, SAYEGH, GOTTFRIED, DINOWITZ, DARLING, HYNDMAN -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. BUTTENSCHON, GRIFFIN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the state finance law and the judiciary law, in relation to establishing a fund to assist public service attorneys practicing public service law to repay their student loans

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "public
2 interest legal services loan assistance act".

3 § 2. Declaration of policy and legislative intent. The legislature
4 reaffirms that the efficient and effective provision of high-quality 5 legal services on behalf of the state, its political subdivisions and 6 the populations therein depends on competent, dedicated attorneys making 7 a long-term commitment to public-service work, whether as prosecutors, 8 public defenders or other indigent defense attorneys, civil legal 9 services attorneys, or the equivalent. The legislature finds, however, 10 that because these attorneys often carry significant and increasing 11 student loan debt burdens and have grave difficulty in repaying such 12 debts on the relatively low salaries paid by most public interest posi-
13 tions, many of these attorneys are being forced to leave public service.
14 The loss of so many capable public interest attorneys, often at the very 15 time they have achieved sufficient training and experience to handle the 16 most complex matters of public concern, has had an adverse impact on 17 government generally and reduced the capacity of the criminal and civil 18 justice systems to provide the consistently high-quality legal services 19 the people of New York state deserve. The legislature finds that the 20 difficulty of attracting and retaining well-trained public interest
21 lawyers due to student loan debt frustrates the achievement of important 22 constitutional and statutory policy objectives, increases the cost of

1 state and local government, and diminishes public confidence in the 2 criminal and civil justice systems. The legislature therefore recognizes 3 the value of retaining these seasoned public servants in public interest
4 positions and finds that it is in the public interest to provide finan-
5 cial assistance to help these attorneys repay their student loans.
6 Accordingly, the legislature hereby establishes the public interest
7 legal services loan assistance fund.

8 § 3. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 99-g to 9 read as follows:

10 § 99-g. Public interest legal services loan assistance fund. 1. There 11 is hereby established in the joint custody of the state comptroller and 12 the chief administrator of the courts a special fund to be known as the 13 "public interest legal services loan assistance fund" of the state of 14 New York.

15 2. The public interest legal services loan assistance fund shall 16 consist of the monies deposited therein pursuant to subdivision one of 17 section four hundred sixty-five of the judiciary law, and all monies
18 deposited therein or transferred thereto from any other fund or source 19 pursuant to law, including voluntary contributions, together with any 20 interest accrued thereon.

21 3. All monies in the public interest legal services loan assistance 22 fund shall be available, subject to appropriations, for the payment of 23 services and expenses as provided for in the public interest legal 24 services loan assistance program authorized by article fifteen-B of the 25 judiciary law, including the costs to the unified court system incurred 26 in the administration of such program.

27 4. All payments of money from the public interest legal services loan 28 assistance fund shall be made on the audit and warrant of the comp-29 troller on vouchers certified or approved by the chief administrator of 30 the courts.

31 § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 465 of the judiciary law, as amended by 32 section 6 of part K of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, is amended to 33 read as follows:

34 1. Every person applying for examination for admission to practice as 35 an attorney and counselor at law shall pay a fee of [~~two~~] four hundred 36 [~~fifty~~] dollars, or seven hundred fifty dollars if, to qualify to take 37 the bar examination, the person must satisfy the rules of the court of 38 appeals for the admission of attorneys and counselors at law governing 39 the study of law in a foreign country, for each taking or retaking of 40 the examination, or if dispensation has been received from the taking of 41 the examination, [~~four~~] five hundred dollars for credential review for 42 admission on motion. All such fees shall be paid into the state treasury
43 in the manner provided by section one hundred twenty-one of the state 44 finance law, provided that one hundred fifty dollars of each fee for the 45 taking or retaking of the examination and one hundred dollars of each 46 fee for credential review for admission on motion shall be deposited in 47 the public interest legal services loan assistance fund established
48 pursuant to section ninety-nine-g of the state finance law.

20 thereof; or

21 (b) a not-for-profit corporation of this state that is (i) exempt from 22 the payment of federal income taxes pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the 23 internal revenue code, and (ii) established for the purpose of providing 15 student loan expense of such eligible attorney or six thousand dollars.

16 The state assistance apportioned under this section shall be determined

18 services loan assistance fund. In the event that the monies appropriated 19 from such fund during a state fiscal year for purposes of making assist-20 ance payments are not sufficient to pay fully the amounts apportioned 21 during such fiscal year to all eligible attorneys entitled thereto, each 22 eligible attorney shall be entitled to receive only an amount represent-23 ing the same proportion to the total monies appropriated, less necessary 24 administrative costs, as the amount apportioned to him or her bears to
