AN ACT to amend the labor law and the education law, in relation to the hours worked by nurses

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 167 of the labor law, as added by 2 chapter 493 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

3 1. When used in this section:

4 a. "Health care employer" shall mean any individual, partnership, 5 association, corporation, limited liability company or any person or 6 group of persons acting directly or indirectly on behalf of or in the 7 interest of the employer, which provides health care services (i) in a 8 facility licensed or operated pursuant to article twenty-eight and arti-
9 cle thirty-six of the public health law, including any facility operated 10 by the state, a political subdivision or a public corporation as defined 11 by section sixty-six of the general construction law, or (ii) in a 12 facility operated by the state, a political subdivision or a public
13 corporation as defined by section sixty-six of the general construction
14 law, operated or licensed pursuant to the mental hygiene law, the educa-15 tion law or the correction law.

16 b. "Nurse" shall mean a registered professional nurse or a licensed 17 practical nurse as defined by article one hundred thirty-nine of the 18 education law who provides direct patient care.

19 c. "Regularly scheduled work hours", including regularly scheduled 20 home care visits, pre-scheduled on-call time and the time spent for the 21 purpose of communicating shift reports regarding patient status necessary to ensure patient safety, shall mean those hours and home care visits a nurse has agreed to work and is normally scheduled to work pursuant to the budgeted hours and home care visits allocated to the nurse's position by the health care employer; and if no such allocation system exists, some other measure generally used by the health care employer to determine when an employee is minimally supposed to work, consistent with the collective bargaining agreement, if any. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit an employer to use on-call time as a substitute for mandatory overtime.

§ 2. Section 6510-e of the education law, as added by chapter 493 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

§ 6510-e. Nurses' refusal of overtime work. The refusal of a licensed practical nurse or a registered professional nurse to work beyond said nurse's regularly scheduled hours of work, including regularly scheduled home care visits, shall not solely constitute patient abandonment or neglect except under the circumstances provided for under subdivision three of section one hundred sixty-seven of the labor law.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.
