1 Where there is a dispute between the parties concerning the determi-
2 nations, the court shall adjourn the hearing as necessary to permit the 3 sex offender or the district attorney to obtain materials relevant to 4 the determinations from any state or local facility, hospital, institu-
5 tion, office, agency, department or division. Such materials may be 6 obtained by subpoena if not voluntarily provided to the requesting 7 party. In making the determinations, the court shall review any victim's 8 statement and any relevant materials and evidence submitted by the sex
9 offender and the district attorney and the court may consider reliable 10 hearsay evidence submitted by either party provided that it is relevant 11 to the determinations. Facts previously proven at trial or elicited at 12 the time of entry of a plea of guilty shall be deemed established by 13 clear and convincing evidence and shall not be relitigated. The court 14 shall render an order setting forth its determinations and the findings
15 of fact and conclusions of law on which the determinations are based. A 16 copy of the order shall be submitted by the court to the division. Upon 17 application of either party, the court shall seal any portion of the 18 court file or record which contains material that is confidential under 19 any state or federal statute. Either party may appeal as of right from 20 the order pursuant to the provisions of articles fifty-five, fifty-six 21 and fifty-seven of the civil practice law and rules. Where counsel has 22 been assigned to represent the sex offender upon the ground that the sex 23 offender is financially unable to retain counsel, that assignment shall 24 be continued throughout the pendency of the appeal, and the person may 25 appeal as a poor person pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county 26 law.

27 § 2. Section 168-f of the correction law is amended by adding a new 28 subdivision 3-a to read as follows:

29 3-a. The provisions of subdivision two of this section shall be 30 applied to a sex offender required to register under this article except 31 that a sex offender convicted of an offense involving a child and desig-
32 nated a level three offender and a sexual predator or predicate sex
33 offender, must also be fitted with a global positioning system monitor
34 immediately upon release or commencement of parole or post-release
35 supervision, or probation, or release on payment of a fine, conditional
36 discharge or unconditional discharge. Such global positioning device
37 shall be programmed to send forth an alarm when such sex offender leaves 38 a certain jurisdiction or enters a forbidden area. The period of such 39 monitoring for such sex offender shall be determined by the court, as 40 provided in subdivision three of section one hundred sixty-eight-d of 41 this article. The division shall annually evaluate such sex offender's 42 financial ability to offset the cost of administering the global posi-43 tioning system and levy such assessment upon such offender. Failure to 44 pay such assessment shall result in a financial hardship hearing as 45 provided in section 420.40 of the criminal procedure law. Such sex 46 offender shall have the right to petition for relief or modification of 47 such duty to wear a global positioning system monitor as provided in 48 subdivision two-a of section one hundred sixty-eight-o of this article.
49 The duty to wear a global positioning system monitor shall be temporar-
50 ily suspended during any period in which such sex offender is confined 51 to any state or local correctional facility, hospital or institution and 52 shall immediately recommence on the date of such sex offender's release.

53 § 3. Section 168-o of the correction law is amended by adding a new 54 subdivision 2-a to read as follows:

55 2-a. Any sex offender required to wear a global positioning system
56 monitor pursuant to this article may petition the sentencing court or

1 the court which made the determination regarding such monitoring for an 2 order modifying or terminating the monitoring portion of the determi-
3 nation. The petition shall set forth the reasons supporting such modifi-
4 cation or termination. The sex offender shall bear the burden of proving 5 the facts supporting the requested modification or termination by clear
6 and convincing evidence. Such a petition shall not be considered more
7 than annually. In the event that the sex offender's petition to modify 8 the level of notification is granted, the district attorney may appeal
9 as of right from the order pursuant to the provisions of articles 10 fifty-five, fifty-six and fifty-seven of the civil practice law and 11 rules. Where counsel has been assigned to represent the sex offender 12 upon the ground that the sex offender is financially unable to retain 13 counsel, that assignment shall be continued throughout the pendency of 14 the appeal, and the person may appeal as a poor person pursuant to arti-
15 cle eighteen-B of the county law.

16 § 4. This act shall take effect on the first of November next succeed-17 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
