AN ACT to dedicate and designate Jerome Park as parkland of the city of New York, and to establish a working group for such park to enhance use thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Legislative intent. The legislature hereby finds that 2 Jerome Park, located around the Jerome Park reservoir, that is located in the borough of the Bronx in the city of New York, has been used for 4 numerous outdoor recreational and open space purposes for over a century. Furthermore, such park has the potential to incorporate additional urban wildlife sanctuary, outdoor recreational and open space uses for the betterment of the local community. Through the auspices of master plans authorized and approved by the parks and recreation department of the city of New York and work by community groups such as the Jerome 10 Park Conservancy and the Friends of Jerome Park, it is a sound public 11 policy and community benefit to advance the increased use of Jerome Park for additional outdoor recreational and open space uses and to integrate 13 such park functions with the adjacently located Fort Independence Park. 14 Going forward, key elements of the future design of the park should help to preserve its historic essence, reveal its potential as public space, and link places and events with the park to the surrounding community. 16 Finally, such future development of Jerome Park should frame the beauty 17 of the reservoir with a new layer of landscape and purpose. 18 19

19 § 2. To achieve the legislative intent articulated in section one of this act, all lands that are contained in Jerome Park, which are located 21 in or adjacent to block 3246, section 12 of the land map of the borough of the Bronx, city of New York, excluding those lands that are the reservoir itself and lands bordering such reservoir shore line that are a distance of ten feet from the outside border of such reservoir shore
